Will Start Trial Of Japanese For Cruelty On Ships

Eight To Be Tried For Death Of 1,300 American Prisoners On "Horror Ships"

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Feb. 27.—Eight Japanese were ordered today to stand trial for the deaths of 1,300 American and Allied prisoners of war aboard three "hell ships."

The victims perished during a six-weeks journey from Manila to Formosa. They were headed aboard the prison ships at a month before Gen. Douglas MacArthur's liberating legions invaded Luzon.

On Trial March 6

Alva C. Carpenter, chief of the legal section of MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo, announced that the eight accused Japanese will be placed on trial March 6 in Yokohama.

Carpenter said he had talked to survivors of the death voyages, had read diaries written by victims and witnesses and had scanned thousands of words of recorded testimony.

"No place in the records of history," he said, "can one find anything so gruesome and horrible. No mitigating circumstances can explain or condone such cruelty."

Carpenter said the accused Japanese include a shipmaster, a POW guard commander, an interpreter, and medical non-commissioned guards.

The headquarters legal expert disclosed that 1,619 POWs, mostly Americans, were removed from the prison ships at a month before Gen. Douglas MacArthur's liberating legions invaded Luzon.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Workmen were busily engaged on Wednesday afternoon, installing the framework for the new bulletin board that will rest on the eastern end of the Diamond during the Red Cross campaign which is to get under way shortly.

Squirrels, chipmunks, sparrows and cardinals are keeping Carletaker Chris Coulthard at Cascade Park busy carrying grain to the ravished wild life. Pa Newc discovered in his usual visit to the amusement spot on Wednesday afternoon. Almost as soon as the daily quota is placed on the shelves scattered throughout the park, the food disappears like magic, Mr. Coulthard reported.

Summer may be a few months away yet, but one local firm isn't losing any time in making plans for its annual picnic. The company has reserved the grove at the Park for a district outing to occur on June 28. Many other such picnics will attract thousands to the Park grove during the summer.

After battling the elements for several days, the State Highway Department reported this morning that road conditions throughout the county were in fairly good shape and barring unforeseen circumstances, the department expected to spend a fairly quiet week end.

J. G. Griffiths of Front street, reported to Pa Newc this morning that he can recall the U. J. Lewis leather business which was mentioned in Wednesday's Pa Newc column. The business he stated was located on the Public Square near the present Bleakley block.

Women are being called for jury duty in Lawrence county in increasing numbers, Pa Newc notes in the list for service on the grand jury called for next week, a majority of them are women.

If some North Hill folks want to find out how their "young angels" spend their evenings, they should drive the family car around to the area between Mercer and Albert streets. Maybe they will find them hanging out their own rear bumper, hitching a ride in the most dangerous fashion. The boys wait until a car stops for an intersection.

Byrd Expedition Is Through Ice Mass

By LEE VAN ATTA
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD THE U. S. S. MOUNT OLYMPUS IN ANTARCTICA, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The ice breaker Burton Island made its rendezvous with the U. S. S. Mount Olympus today at the northern edge of the Ross ice barrier after a record-breaking three-day run through the great ice mass.

The sturdy little ice smasher emerged from the barrier early in the day and saluted the awaiting flagship. The two vessels edged behind an ice wall that cut off the choppy seas, and the transfer of personnel to the Mount Olympus soon followed.

The 200 veterans of Little America's air operations were happy to leave the cramped quarters of the Burton Island for the more spacious headquarters vessel.

Make Trip Easy

No one regretted the unexpected ease with which the icebreaker completed its passage through the Ross.

Admiral Cruzen Says Polar Trip Big Success

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD U. S. S. MOUNT OLYMPUS, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The fourth American expedition exploring the mysteries of the Antarctic has been "very much a success" both in discoveries and in Polar training for the navy, Rear Adm. Richard H. Cruzen said tonight as his flagship began her long journey home over a fog-veiled sea.

The Mount Olympus and the Burton Island are steaming toward New Zealand with their work finished. Cruzen declared "the time is getting short" for further flights by Eastern or Western wing groups.

Nimitz Congratulates

Adm. Nimitz, in a message to the task force, said:

"The chief of naval operations congratulates Task Force 68 on its achievements and the determined manner in which it overcame all obstacles to those achievements. Your experience and training in operation in Polar weather are a great asset to the naval service."

Summing up, Cruzen, the Task Force chief, said naval personnel on the expedition got a "real insight into the type of problems you have to face in Polar regions and that was the primary objective—to find out what our problems are."

Invaluable navigational experience was obtained in forcing through the icepack, which scarcely could be tougher, and all ships, despite thin hulls, were brought through successfully, although the Merrick lost a rudder and other vessels suffered minor damage. Cruzen said the damage was less than he had expected.

Britain's Effort In Fuel Crisis Again Setback

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Britons doggedly faced the obstacles of renewed snows and high winds today in their fatiguing battle against the coal shortage.

Yesterday's blizzard in Northern England, the most savage of the winter, set back the progress of weeks of effort in many areas.

Roads that had been cleared of snow after days of labor once again were choked by high drifts.

Four hundred army trucks butted into snow-banks in an effort to move coal from Claycross, in Derbyshire, to power stations at Manchester and Rotherham.

Collars along the northeast coast were kept to their harbors by gale warnings.

In Northern England and Scotland, hundreds of villages were isolated and 150 main roads completely blocked by yesterday's storm.

Report Steamer In Distress Off Virginia Coast

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 27.—(INS)—The Coast Guard reported today that the former Chesapeake Bay passenger steamer President Warfield is in distress 75 miles east of Cape Hatteras.

A radio plea for aid from Capt. William Schlader, master of the stricken ship, said the engine room was flooded and the vessel was in imminent danger of sinking.

Schlader said a tanker was standing by pending arrival of Coast Guard cutters dispatched to the scene.

The Warfield left Baltimore Tuesday, bound for Marseilles, France. Shipping authorities in Baltimore said her crew consisted mainly of Jewish seamen.

SLED-RIDER RUNS INTO AUTOMOBILE

James Smith, aged 11 years, of 417 Spruce street, was brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital at 9:30 o'clock for treatment of a laceration of the right knee, sustained when he ran into an automobile while sled-riding near his home.

BOMBER REPORTED EXECUTED

LONDON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Reuter reported today that General Alexander Leehr, German commander in the Balkans who ordered the 1941 air bombings of Belgrade, was executed as a war criminal yesterday in Belgrade.

Truman Denies Bevin's Charge On Palestine

White House Statement Issued In Reply To Assertions By British Premier

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—President Truman tossed the dynamite-laden Palestine question back to British Foreign Minister Bevin today with the terse comment that the American recommendation for the admittance of 100,000 Jews to the Holy Land was not motivated by politics.

The White House said that Bevin's charge last Tuesday that Mr. Truman had undermined British negotiations over the Palestine problem last October had created a "most unfortunate and misleading" impression.

Statement Issued

A day of official silence was ended when the White House issued a prepared statement in reply to Bevin who asserted that a statement by Mr. Truman during the 1946 campaign, urging admission of the Jews to Palestine, resulted in the breakdown of peace talks in London.

The American statement declared that President Truman "merely reaffirmed" an attitude toward Palestine and Jewish immigration into the Holy Land which the United States government has publicly expressed since the summer of 1945.

The White House emphasized that "this attitude was and is based upon the desire of the president to advance a just solution of the Palestine problem."

Bevin also was reminded that Mr. Truman had been quoted as saying:

Find Tribute To Three Men Lost Years Ago

Copper Tube Containing 30 Year Old Message Is Found In Antarctic Region

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD THE U. S. S. MOUNT OLYMPUS, Feb. 27.—A copper tube, corroded green from 30 years of exposure to the polar elements, has yielded a tender tribute, written in memory of three Britons who perished on Sir Ernest Shackleton's expedition of 1914-1917.

The corroded tube, containing a message in ink, was found last week at a McMurdo Sound site by Rear Adm. Richard H. Cruzen, who brought it back with him. The lines were penned to the memory of two members of the expedition—Mackintosh and Hayward—who were lost when ice broke up while they were making a trip between two capes, and the Rev. Spencer-Smith, who died on a trial trip.

Adm. Cruzen found the tube near a camp site used by famed explorer Capt. Robert Scott in 1910-1912. Scott perished while returning from a sled trip to the South Pole.

But Scott camp was eight miles south of the later Shackleton camp, and Adm. Cruzen said it was a mystery how the tube happened to be lying on the snow near the Scott camp.

Plan Steps To Speed Freight Car Building

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Early relief from the industry-slowness freight car famine appeared near today as the steel, railroad and car-building industries took steps to move.

The goal all down the line was 10,000 cars a month, compared to current output of less than 3,000.

The steel industry is committed to supply enough metal to produce cars at that rate, the builders are pledged to make them at that rate and the railroads are committed to buy them at that rate.

These agreements were reached at a conference of top-level industry and government officials sponsored by Sen. Reed (R) Kan., chairman of a Senate subcommittee which has been investigating the critical car shortage.

Visibly elated as he announced the results of the conference, Reed told reporters that it culminated "my most productive day in public office."

Reed said that 10,000 cars a month plan will go into operation immediately and that the peak production rate should be reached in June.

Belgian 'Bonus' Bill Cause Of Rioting

BRUSSELS, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Belgian government officials saw little likelihood today in parliament's passing the "bonus" bill in support of which 30 thousand former war prisoners rioted yesterday in Brussels.

The riot was quelled only after 65 persons had been injured and one bystander had died of a heart attack.

Medical treatment was given to 30 rioting veterans, 25 police and 10 onlookers. Fifty of them later were hospitalized.

Armed guards stood outside parliament and the royal palace today among wrecked automobiles, smashed weapons, torn banners and fragments from broken windows.

PA AND MA COUNT NOSES AT FAMILY REUNION

When Mike Latoria and his wife (right) get together with their children it's a household in every sense of the word. But even this offspring hoard that descended on their Chicago home to celebrate the couple's 40th wedding anniversary found two of their 20 living children absent.

Draft Boards To Consolidate

Three Selective Service Boards Here Will Be Merged, Effective Friday

ALL THREE WILL OCCUPY ONE OFFICE

Consolidation of the three selective service boards quartered in New Castle has been ordered by state headquarters of the Selective Service system, it was announced today by Edwin E. Mercer, Clerical Field Supervisor, Field Division, Pennsylvania State Headquarters for Selective Service. The merger will take place on Friday, when City Boards One and Two, will move in with County Board Two, and will be quartered in Room 621 Lawrence Savings and Trust Building.

Some time ago, consolidation of boards was ordered, where it was considered practical and feasible, this being left to the discretion of the boards, but nothing was done here. As a result, orders to consolidate were handed down by state headquarters, in an economy move.

City Board One had been located in Room 412, Union Trust Company.

All Of Buffalo's Schools Closed

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 27.—(INS)—All of Buffalo's 98 schools were closed today as a result of the "state of emergency" resulting from the strike of teachers for higher pay.

Dr. Robert T. Baptist, superintendent of schools, ordered the complete cessation after the board of education, at a special meeting, empowered him to meet the crisis.

Baptist's order closed technical high school and 18 elementary schools which had been limping along on an abbreviated schedule since the strike went into effect Monday morning.

This morning not one wheel in the vast mechanism of Buffalo's educational system was functioning. Some 71,000 students were home, marking time and awaiting developments in the unprecedented strike.

Leaders of the strike were looking toward Albany, anticipating that the state authorities would take quick action to meet the situation.

China's Famous Soldier Making Pittsburgh Tour

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—(INS)—China's famous soldier of Burma road fame, Gen. Wei Li-Huang, today continued a tour of Pittsburgh industrial plants after inspecting a $50,000,000 training and equipment program for China now underway at Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Gen. Wei is making the tour of industrial plants at the request of Secretary of State George C. Marshall and the U. S. Army.

At the Westinghouse plant the general met 60 engineers now being trained for work in China. Ultimately, Westinghouse will train 300 engineers and key factory personnel for the Chinese plants, the first to be built at Shiangtan in Hunan province.

Closed observation of four and one-half weeks of public hearings led Capitol Hill experts to the belief that the committee was ready to recommend confirmation of the five-man commission.

Forecasts ranged from unanimous approval to three opposing votes in the nine-member committee.

Daily Deliveries Of Milk To Boost Price Is Warning

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Dealers warned the Pennsylvania milk control commission today that consumer milk prices would rise sharply if daily deliveries were resumed.

Skipped deliveries were sanctioned by the MCC and the defunct office of defense transportation four years ago as a wartime necessity.

Thomas Waddell, vice president of the Philadelphia Milk Distributors Association, said that if every-other-day deliveries were abandoned "costs of distribution will increase necessitating an increased cost that consumers pay for milk."

The estimated increase per quart was a half cent, he added.

Study Latest Russian Charge

LONDON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The reported charge by Marshal Vassily Sokolovsky that the United States and Britain are attempting to create a separate "capitalist state" in western Germany was studied with concern today in London.

One British diplomat described it as "possibly the most disturbing Russian attack on British policy in Germany so far."

The Soviet military governor in Germany was reported to have made the charge at Tuesday's meeting of the allied control council in Britain.

London reports detailed that he accused the British and Americans of employing tactics designed to prevent the establishment of a central German administration as envisioned at Potsdam.

President And Foreign Policy Advisers Confer

Session Held In Preparation For Coming Moscow Peace Conference

MARSHALL LEAVES SOON FOR RUSSIA

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—President Truman held a full-dress discussion today with the top leaders of both parties in foreign affairs on the vitally important Moscow peace conference.

The chief executive called in Secretary of State Marshall and under Secretary of State Acheson and eight leaders of both parties in the senate and house for a lengthy over-all review of American foreign policy in relation to this government's stand in the making of the peace.

The president conferred with his top advisers for an hour.

Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., chairman of the senate foreign relations committee as well as president pro tem of the senate, acted as spokesman for the conferees after the meeting broke up.

Talk Of Moscow Conference

Vandenberg said the hour-long conference dwelt upon one subject: The Moscow Conference.

He said:

"On the eve of Secretary Marshall's departure for Moscow we had a general discussion of the European problem which is involved in the approaching meeting at Moscow."

Vandenberg said that was as far as he was permitted to go concerning the meeting.

He answered one question, however, explaining that the discussion was "entirely on European affairs."

A question was raised as to whether the meeting concerned budget matters and finance in view of the fact that Rep. Taber (R) N. Y., was reported to have been invited to the conference but was not present.

Vandenberg said it had nothing to do with financial matters, but to ask Taber when he came in to see the president.

Taber will see Mr. Truman later in the day.

Communists In China Moving On Changchun

PEIPING, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Nationalist strongholds guarding the approaches to Changchun, capital of rich Manchuria, toppled today before a Chinese Communist offensive that swept to within nine miles of the city's northern suburbs.

Government sources, stressing the power of the Red offensive, admitted that columns of the famed Communist Eight Route Army have encircled Changchun on three sides.

A triangular Nationalist front, with its apex on the Sungari river before Harbin and its baseline running through Changchun, appeared to be crumbling rapidly under the trip-hammer Communist onslaught.

Nomination Of Lilienthal Faces First Formal Test

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The nomination of David E. Lilienthal as the nation's atomic chief faced its first formal test today as the nation's atomic energy committee amid predictions the group's recommendations will be sent to the senate next week.

A closed-door committee meeting was called today by Chairman Hickel (R) Iowa, to decide whether additional testimony should be heard and to plan several secret sessions with Lilienthal and the other four members of the atomic control commission.

Close observation of four and one-half weeks of public hearings led Capitol Hill experts to the belief that the committee was ready to recommend confirmation of the five-man commission.

Forecasts ranged from unanimous approval to three opposing votes in the nine-member committee.

Building Burns At Georgetown

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The historic Mulley Building at Georgetown University was gutted today by a fire which destroyed living quarters and otherwise severely damaged the structure.

University officials said no one was injured by the blaze which apparently started in a section occupied by Jesuit Priests at Georgetown, the oldest Catholic institution of higher learning in the United States.

Students aided firemen in battling the three-alarm blaze.

Arthur Mometer

He had a tip on a horse that was hot, the tip I mean, not the horse, he was bound to win, or they said he was, he had courage and speed and force. So he laid a five on the pony's nose, and his friend matched the five with his own, and I watched the result in the paper next day, and I thought I could hear a slight groan. The nag didn't win, nor did he show, as a matter of fact didn't place, but I found his name at the end of the list, the paper it seems had some space. There, five or six others it said "also ran," my friend's horse was listed 100th, so he lost that old jim and his friend lost the same, the weather is just twenty-eight.

What Comes Next? Asked Man Who Faked Own Murder

Los Angeles Executive Turns Up
In Seattle Admitting Fake
In Supposed Murder

SEATTLE, Feb. 27. — (INS) — "What comes next?" was the question today for a 31-year-old Los Angeles executive who faked his own murder to escape the "routine" of his life.

He is Eugene H. White, 31-year-old assistant superintendent of an aircraft equipment plant.

White told Seattle police and his wife that he had not been slain when he disappeared in Los Angeles February 14, leaving blood stains on his car, a box of valentine candy and a rusty pipe.

He said he has asked his wife to come to Seattle and help him decide what to do next.

White told police he cut his little finger with a razor blade and smeared the blood over his car. He said he wanted to escape from a life that meant 14 hours of work a day and no vacation.

White left Los Angeles with $81 and went to San Francisco and Portland. In the Oregon city he grew a mustache, had a crew haircut and bought the first hat he wore since 1932.

With only $1 left, he returned to Seattle Tuesday. A family friend persuaded him to tell his story to the police.

In Los Angeles, Mrs. Elizabeth White offered to take back her husband, saying:

"If Gene will come home and make a fresh start, I'll take him back."

Mrs. White said they had disagreed where to live, she wishing to return to Elmira, N. Y., and he to go to Honolulu.

Before the war an estimated 50,000 U. S. homes rented rooms to tourists.

TRUMAN DENIES BEVIN'S CHARGE ON PALESTINE

Truman had communicated the American position to Prime Minister Attlee by letter on August 31, 1945. Again referring to Bevin's charge of politics, the White House said: "America's interest in Palestine is of long and continuing standing. It is a deep and abiding interest shared by our people without regard to their political affiliation."

Mr. Truman's position received the support of both Republicans and Democrats who were aroused deeply at Bevin's remarks.

IMPORTANT DECISION
NEW YORK.—(INS)—Robert E. Woodruff, president of the Erie railroad, recently explained a basic decision on industrial relations established 95 years ago. "The first train over the N. Y. & Erie had 'Poppy' Ayres, a jovial 300-lb conductor. He rigged up a rope to the engine cab, so when he pulled the rope, a stick on its end jiggled. But Hamel, the engineer wasn't taking orders from any conductor so he cut the stick down. Poppy put it up again; Hamel cut it down. Finally, Poppy lost his patience and beat the daylight out of the engineer, thus firmly establishing not only his own signal but setting the precedent which puts conductors in charge of American trains.

LADIES OF KIWANIS

ADOPT CLUB BY LAWS

At a luncheon meeting in the coral room of The Castleton Wednesday afternoon, wives of Kiwanis club members voted to organize as a club to be known as Ladies of Kiwanis and adopted by-laws of the new organization.

As a preliminary 'get-acquainted' feature, those who attended matched cards on which were written names of presidents of the United States for luncheon partners and during luncheon each one introduced her team mate.

Mrs. Joseph A. Hartman, who presided, related items of interest about a number of members as a further introductory feature.

Highlight of the afternoon's program was a quiz talk on the etiquette of names, introductions, address and proper parliamentary form in addressing the chair. Entitled "Who Am I?" it was given by Mrs. Thomas A. Gilkey, well-known here as an authority on parliamentary law.

While manners and etiquette change with fashion as well as clothes, she pointed out, yet there are certain forms that are recognized as correct, with, for instance, a distinction between the social form of name by which a woman identifies or registers herself and her name as she signs it in letters or for business purposes.

One interesting point of parliamentary procedure stressed by the speaker was that when a meeting has been called to order, the chair has no identity and should be addressed by a member who wishes to be recognized as "Madame Chairman". And the presiding officer while in the chair never should use the pronoun "I" and may speak to clarify an issue but should voice no opinion.

After a reading of the by-laws with a call for amendment to each article was read, they were adopted without amendment on motion by Mrs. Lumen Popp.

Committees were announced as follows: program, Mrs. Jesse N. Kerr, Mrs. E. L. Vincent, Mrs. Stanley Zaremba; social, Mrs. H. Lee Marvin, Mrs. Joseph L. Rocks, Mrs. Coy N. Shellato, Mrs. L. F. Royston; membership, Mrs. Robert L. Wallace, Mrs. John McGrath, Mrs. Kenneth M. McClure; publicity, Mrs. L. C. Mantz; sunshine, Mrs. A. H. Glick, Mrs. Thomas G. Allen, Mrs. Ed Hite; historian, Mrs. Kenneth H. Beck.

Officers of the club are: president, Mrs. Joseph A. Hartman; vice president, Mrs. Sam Lewis; secretary, Mrs. John Alexander; treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Z. Galbreath. Members of the board of directors are Mrs. Clement Parker, Mrs. Thomas Paden and Mrs. Clarence England.

Singing of one verse of "America" led by Mrs. Sam Lewis opened the luncheon program and the invocation was given by Mrs. Charles McGrath.

Mrs. Clement Parker and Mrs. Thomas Paden were the hostess committee for the meeting.

Next meeting of the club will be on the third Wednesday of March at 1:15 in The Castleton.

No Scarcity of Economists

What a complex contraption the United States Government has grown to be was illustrated this week by Representative Taber of New York, in calling for a slash of $100,000,000, or more than a third of its spending estimate for 1948, in the funds of the Department of Commerce.

The department, said Taber, rejoices in the possession of 15 management analysts, 23 information specialists, personnel officers galore under one or another label, 23 librarians, an enormous number of "placement officers," 38 administrative officers, 84 economic analysts and 35 economists.

Maybe all of these people are needed to run the department. On the other hand, maybe they aren't. Maybe we have too many economists and not enough economy. A great many hard-pressed taxpayers would be glad to see, just once, how inexpensively the country could be run.

You Tell 'Em, Jack

Prof. Wendell Johnson, University of Iowa psychologist, wants his students to call him "Jack" because calling people by their first names is the solution of an inferiority complex. "By giving other titles, whether they be mother, doctor or professor, you lower yourself in elevating them," he says.

An inferiority complex would seem to be very much advanced, if one felt one lowered oneself and elevated others by addressing them as "Mother," "Doctor" or "Professor." But it seems doubtful that university students are affected by that sinking feeling in so doing.

Jack is a little off the beam. Nowadays it's the parents who seem to have the inferiority complex. That is understandable in the case of a father who has found that calling an offspring "Son" repeatedly has been offset by the appellation "Pop."

Easier For Thieves

Most of the motor thefts which police were called upon to investigate last year had been a result of neglect by their owners. Ignition keys had been left in more than 90 per cent of vehicles illegally driven away.

Machines found in this condition are temptations to thieves, particularly wayward youngsters who do not reckon with the cost and probability of their being arrested. While the police exert every effort at their command to recover stolen cars and apprehend the thieves, they need the help of the public.

That help can come best through preventive means. If drivers would lock their cars when parking, and see to it that ignition keys are not left behind, they would save themselves worry and the police a great deal of trouble. They also would thwart the inclinations of potential thieves and needless expense would be avoided.

Lights For Safe Landings

It is good news that the Navy intends to set up a radar-beacon lane across the United States sometime this year. Just as important to air safety, however, is the point made by the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce in its recommendation for immediate installation of "high intensity approach lights" at leading airports.

There is nothing theoretical about such lights, no controversy and no imaginable grounds for doubting their practicability. They aren't, of course, going to end all accidents; and they don't offer, perhaps, the very great boon to aviation that is the promise of radar. But it seems hard to conceive of any reason why such ordinary safety equipment should be lacking anywhere in our major airports. Yet pilots say that almost no airport in the country possesses adequate lighting.

General installation of radar at our airfields and in airlines should be brought about as soon as practicable, and there's every reason to believe that the Army, Navy and science and the airlines are doing everything in their power to bring that time closer. Congress should help in the fight. But the time to install lights is right now. Delay is inexcusable.

Teach Them Young

The idea of teaching high school students how to drive an automobile is making deserved progress. It has reached the stage of specific proposals.

One proposal was made at the annual Northeastern Regional Conference on highway and motor vehicle problems in New York by Martin Klein, director of the traffic engineering and safety division of the Automobile Club of New York.

Klein recommended a 10-week required course in automobile driving for all students in every high school, the course to consist of five periods a week or the equivalent in classroom training.

"The schools," said Klein, "have demonstrated definitely and conclusively that they have the know-how to reduce traffic death and injury. It is therefore most logical that in this time of great danger we turn to them and say, 'Train our youth to live safely in this motoring age.'"

The soundness of the recommendation lies in the fact that sooner or later most Americans find themselves behind the wheel of a car and could benefit tremendously from considerably more than rudimentary knowledge of how to make it go.

High schools could provide expert instruction in driving. If high schools can give courses in gymnastics to build healthy bodies, they can give courses in driving to help keep them that way.

Woman psychiatrist says girls who swoon over radio crooners are off base, refuting the belief that the trouble was in their heads.

You're Telling Me

By WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Writer

That fellow who, according to a news item, has had his hat insured against theft, fire and collision, probably never heard of those March winds.

A deer strolled into a bookshop in a Canadian town. News story didn't say whether the clerk sold him a copy of "Bambi."

Field Marshal Montgomery's medals, we read, weigh a total of 79 pounds. They should give him another—as a champion weight lifter.

Three bears in an English theatrical animal act went on strike and refused to go on with their show. If the bears form a picket line it should be a success, since few would care to pass through it.

Grandpappy Jenkins says spring poets wouldn't be so enthusiastic if they had to write their poems between bouts of house cleaning.

However, we are now hearing that grand time when we can look at a thermometer without that feeling of dread.

Toronto thieves stole a ton of feathers. If caught with that kind of loot, says the man at the next desk, they can, naturally, expect to wind up in the coop.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

Lillenthal Battle May Affect Taft

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. — Not long after David E. Lillenthal was nominated to be chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy commission, a friend came to him with a report that certain Republican leaders had decided to throw the weight of the party against his confirmation.

Participating in this decision were some of the most influential and wealthy backers of the Republican party. According to this report they even worked out a pattern of strategy whereby G.O.P. opposition would seem to develop spontaneously rather than as the result of agreement among the moguls of the party.

Lillenthal dismissed this report as merely another of the rumors that constantly circulate in Washington's overheated atmosphere. But as the campaign against him develops, it seems to have more than an accidental quality. In timing and emphasis, it unfolds with what appears to be calculated design, the climax being the extraordinary statement issued by Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, real boss of the Senate.

Looks As Though It Was Planned
Senator Taft says this is not a party matter. When, however, the opening gun is fired by Senator H. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, a close ally of Taft, with the next attack coming from Senator Wallace White of Maine, nominal leader of the majority in the Senate, followed by the all-out salvo from Taft himself, it begins to look as though it had been planned that way.

Taft's statement went much further than a mere declaration that he intended to oppose Lillenthal's confirmation. In his reference to a "threat to national security," he seemed to be trying to smear the nominee so completely that Lillenthal's usefulness would be seriously impaired even if he is confirmed.

More serious, however, was what appeared to be an attack on the basis of American atomic policy, which has been widely accepted by press and public. The "beginning" for that policy—and only a beginning, as its authors were careful to point out—was the Lillenthal-Atkinson report. Policy was further shaped by Bernard M. Baruch as head of the American atomic delegation to the U.N.

Calls It Grave Disservice
The reaction to Taft's statement has been generally adverse. It was expressed as forcibly as possible in the New York Herald-Tribune.

"If Mr. Taft persists in this line, which can never be sustained under any reasonable analysis, he will be doing a grave disservice, not only to his own reputation and that of the party he represents but to the influence and prestige of the United States. This country is engaged in the process of creating a policy in international affairs which will safeguard its own interests through international co-operation. A most important aspect of that policy revolves about the negotiations for international control of atomic energy."

If the Senate of the United States, or any substantial segment thereof, Republican or Democratic, demonstrates that it is moved by such shaky logic, such curious interpretations of past events as are contained in Senator Taft's statement on the Lillenthal appointment the whole great effort will be jeopardized and the nation's credit and security will be impaired."

Vandenberg's Courage
One thing that this does, of course, is to leave a beautiful opening for Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan. By his courage, his industry, his high sense of responsibility, Vandenberg has gone far in prestige and leadership in recent years. By insisting, as he has repeatedly insisted, that he has no personal ambitions, Vandenberg has made his position stronger.

He knows far more about the Lillenthal case than Taft can ever know. Faithfully, he has followed the hearing, editorially and carefully time-consuming as they were. When it comes to atomic policy in the international field, the senator from Michigan has a mastery of knowledge gained through his work as a member of the U. S. delegation to the United Nations. It is in Vandenberg's field that Taft seems to want to reverse Republican policy.

In a speech at Yale University last year, Taft excoriated Americans because they no longer were doing their own thinking. Today, he said, Americans are taking their opinions from newspaper columnists, radio commentators and pressure groups that inspire mail campaigns to overwork congressmen.

There may be an organized campaign to bring about Lillenthal's confirmation. If so, I have seen no evidence of it. And when it comes to thinking, perhaps Senator Taft means only that Americans do not happen to agree with him on this and other issues.

PIGS

As a usual thing, pigs have a good appetite. They eat almost everything. They eat large amounts. The more they eat the fatter they get. They drink lots of water too.

If water would make pigs fat, farmers would be glad. Water does not make people fat either.

Food is what makes people fat. Same as pigs. When a person eats more than he needs he will usually get fat. Obesity means too much fat.

Diabetes and cancer and infantile paralysis are dangerous.

Obesity is worse than all of them put together.

Obesity may be all right for pigs.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

What is democracy?

Millions of words have been written about it. In every library in the land there are volumes and volumes on the subject. At thousands of luncheons and dinners and in political campaigns all over the country eloquent orators have talked about it. In every school and every college involved theories are expounded about it.

—but Abraham Lincoln expressed it in fourteen words.

I just read a very good book called "The Lincoln Reader." It is "a biography written by sixty-five authors," and the book is a compilation by Paul M. Angle of the best out of the staggering mass of material that has been written about Lincoln.

In the book Mr. Angle quotes Lord Charnwood, who also wrote a book about Lincoln.

Lord Charnwood quoted a note which Lincoln wrote a year or two before his Presidency.

"As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master," Lincoln wrote. "This expresses my idea of democracy."

There you have it. Fourteen words. "As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master."

What could anyone possibly say to explain the meaning of democracy more clearly?

I have always disagreed somewhat with the credo that "all men are created equal."

That needs explanation. Men are born equal politically, but unfortunately the meaning of that noble phrase has been perverted thousands of times.

Most people seem to think that "all men are created equal" means that all men have equal rights and privileges and opportunities.

Those who are afraid to take chances get what's left by those who aren't.—Peoria, Ill., Star.

From Me To You

Next month the American Red Cross . . . local chapter . . . will be starting the annual membership campaign . . . over the past few years a lot of questions have been asked . . . here are some of the questions and the answers to those questions as stated by people who know in the ARC.

Q. What is a Red Cross Chapter?
A. A chapter is the local unit of the American Red Cross.

Q. What control does the national Red Cross have over chapter activities?
A. Chapters elect their own board members and officers and have wide autonomy in their local operations, subject to the general policies established by the national organization. The national body has the authority to withdraw chapters.

Q. What do Red Cross chapters do?
A. All chapters of the American Red Cross are responsible for the basic services of disaster preparedness and relief and assistance to service-men and veterans and their families. Local needs and conditions determine the nature of extent of a chapter's other activities. The governing body of a chapter, aided by the national organization, determines the other services to be conducted.

Q. During the war period did the Red Cross pay labor unions and other organizations for collecting contributions from their members?
A. No, it didn't pay the labor unions or other organizations. It reimbursed them in some instances for operating expenses incurred in organizing fund-raising activities in behalf of the Red Cross. The agreements for such procedures during the war period were terminated May 1, 1946.

Q. Does the Red Cross receive money from the government?
A. No, The American Red Cross does not receive government funds, but it sometimes acts at the direction of the Congress and the President in distributing relief supplies purchased by the United States government with federal appropriations.

Attitude Of Labor Leaders Assailed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. IF there were no other reasons for the enactment at this session of an effective law curbing the power of labor-union bosses and protecting the public against their excesses, certainly it would be found in the attitude of the heads of the two divisions of organized labor—Mr. William Green, of the AFL, and Mr. Philip Murray, of the CIO.

EITHER these men are extremely stupid themselves, or they are arrogant hypocrites who count upon the stupidity and inertia of members of Congress and the American people. Recently, appearing before the Senate Labor Committee, a patronizing pomposity, which has become habitual, characterized them both—but particularly Mr. Murray. They talked down to the senators—and they both exuded self-importance and self-righteousness to a point where it was as ridiculous as it was offensive.

ACCORDING to these men, there is no merit in any one of the 250-odd bills affecting labor unions that have been introduced. They are opposed as much to the innocuous and moderate proposals as to those classified as "drastic." All measures are regarded as "punitive." Any attempt to amend or modify is considered an effort to "crucify." They deny that any labor abuses have been committed or exist, and indignantly repudiate the suggestion that any reforms are needed. They do not concede a single flaw, fault or failing. Their self-esteem and self-satisfaction are complete.

EVEN senators regarded as strongly pro-labor, such as Mr. Ives, of New York, and the Pacific Coast left-winger, Mr. Wayne Morse, of Oregon, were baffled by their position. In the light of the record, it seems almost the limit in effrontery. It indicates a conviction that labor unions can do no wrong and that an effort to make them amenable to the laws that apply to the rest of us is wicked. Mr. Green, denouncing the proposals to legislate, characterized them as "vindictive," "obnoxious," "bitterly reactionary," "viciously arbitrary," "propagandistic hogwash," etc., etc.

Equally vituperative, Mr. Murray excelled his colleague in unctuousness. He took the grievous view that all these proposals are calculatingly designed to "penalize" labor for its magnificent record of "efficiency and patriotism" during the war. "Is this," he cried, "to be labor's reward for its service to America? That sort of breast-beating ranting is enough to make all the many who are sick with the Murray-Green widely advertised strike pledge during the war and the appalling extent to which it was violated, evaded and ignored; who remembers the millions of man-days lost in munition factories through strikes, slowdowns and walkouts; who recalls the unprecedentedly high wages and overtime which prevailed during the war."

PROBABLY the average union man during the war was as patriotic as any other average man; but in view of the strikes and stoppages in that period, to parade union labor as unselfishly patriotic to the point of

ROTTEN EDUCATION

Very few of our adult acquaintances passed through the period of adolescence without succumbing to a certain extent to the alluring doctrines of Socialism. The cult known as "Christian Socialism" was particularly appealing to the idealism of youth, which thrived on romantic and poetic conceptions of life in a world remade, where there should be no suffering nor want. To young men and women, indifferent to the hard facts of life and ignorant of the laws of economics, there was a strong incentive toward a society in which everybody would be guaranteed happiness and plenty by the state.

Unless human nature has changed within a generation or two, the same type of theoretical Utopia must appeal more or less to the youth of today. This appeal has been fortified by the propaganda of radicals inspiring "youth movements" in behalf of a collectivism and Communism, based on idealistic theories of a new heaven and a new earth. We have seen, under the sponsorship of the New Deal, a variety of organizations designed to inculcate Socialistic or Communistic theories in the body of our young people. The appeal always is to sentiment and invariably ignores the doctrines of common sense.

If we are not to see a new generation addicted to the fallacies of Communism or Socialism, the solid representatives of true Americanism must counter this movement by an educational program designed to offset this subtle, insidious influence and calculated to bring to the forefront the doctrines of true democracy as set forth by the Constitution of the Bill of Rights.

The tendency of youth is to pay more heed to theory than to facts. It is easy for a boy or a girl reading the delusive doctrines of Marx-

DON'T SCOLD FOR PAST WRONGS

An increasing number of letters are coming to me which describe the boy or girl eight or ten years of age, who is poorly controlled. More often than not these youngsters live in "good homes."

Some of the letter may be chiefly devoted to the child's bad behavior at school, to the notes (which may be enclosed) from the teacher, to conferences with the teacher, and to unsuccessful punishments of the child at home for his misdeeds at school. Often, too, some problems of the child's control at home are related.

Prevail On Parents

Always I try to prevail on parents not to scold and punish the child at home for his wrongs or shortcomings at school, but to assure him and the teacher that she is expected to manage him at school and to discipline him there as she sees fit; but to try to effect better control of the child at home in an atmosphere of family security, with the hope that improvement at home will gradually help clear up some of the school problems.

Many mothers also are writing of the deliberate disobedience of the child from eight or ten, or so, at home, saying that this child has little or no regard for "No" or "Don't" and that he will do nothing

WASHINGTON—David Dubinsky, A. F. of L. labor leader: "The underlying cause of strikes has been and still remains the economic insecurity of the workers."

WASHINGTON—Chester E. Merrow (R) New Jersey objects to U. If Russia is going to dominate them, she should feed them."

V-E Day and V-J Day are behind us. If we could look into the future toward a V-A Day (Victory over Accidents) perhaps then we could say that the lives of the 350,000 men, women and children killed in traffic accidents in the United States in the past ten years were expendable. There will be no V-A Day. And there is no good reason why the lives of 35,000 people should be offered each year in our war against carelessness in traffic. Have not the bitter experiences of the past decade shown us that TRAFFIC CAN BE TRAGIC?

Views Of The News

By J. C. OESTREICHER
(N. S. Foreign Editor)

Amidst the bewildering uncertainties of a changing world, the date of March 10 stood out as a beacon light today.

For it became increasingly obvious that the day set for the next meeting of the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers in Moscow inevitably will draw up the timetable of world events for many years to come.

Announcement by Secretary of State George C. Marshall of his plans for attending the Moscow session came at a moment filled with momentous developments.

And it appeared entirely possible that many of the most vexatious questions confronting the world might wait for settlement upon the day and hour when the chief foreign representatives of the Big Four powers assemble once again to discuss "over the table" what form the future of humanity is to assume.

Secretary Marshall's statement embraced or coincided with the following:

1.—British Foreign Secretary Bevin's spectacular charge that American "electioneering" and the allegedly selfish interests of American Jewry had caused the downfall of negotiations aimed at an Arab-Jewish settlement in Palestine.

2.—Disclosure that Soviet Russia, in recognition of the salient role played by the United States in defeat of Japan, had agreed to establishment of American trusteeship of former Japanese mandated islands in the Pacific ocean.

The Soviet action was entirely unexpected, and for the moment left Australia and Great Britain alone in opposition to the sweeping grant of power to the United States.

In diplomatic quarters there was immediate speculation as to how fast the British commonwealth of nations would subscribe.

Bevin was blunt almost to extremity in his charges that President Truman's statement recommending immediate entry of 100 thousand homeless European Jews into Palestine had its origin in domestic American politics.

Offhand it would seem that such an allegation might lead to some sort of diplomatic interchange or possibly even a certain strain in relationships.

But the principle established since the second world war of periodic meetings between qualified representatives of the victorious nations has placed most issues on a personally arguable plane such as never existed before in world history.

Bevin, like Marshall, is preparing to leave for Moscow, and presumably will show up in the Soviet capital prepared to talk over the Palestine situation with Marshall as part and parcel of the whole question of future peace, although it has no positive place on an agenda devoted to a treaty with Germany.

The world is in an era of talking things over in the open.

Large Week Night Audience Listens To Dr. R. J. Wells

Many Special Features Are Being Planned In Connection With City-Wide Revival Campaign

An audience that overflowed the main auditorium of the First Methodist church into the Sunday school room turned out to hear Dr. Robert J. Wells of Wheaton, Ill., speak Wednesday evening, with old time fire and enthusiasm on the inevitable doom of man unless he turns from sin.

Dr. Wells prefaced his address with the testimonies of a doctor from California, a mail carrier from Warren, Ohio and a business man from Oil City, who told of the transformation of their lives since accepting Christ. The evangelist pointed out that sin of omission and unbelief are those that dam men's souls.

A well balanced musical program under the supervision of Forrest Schickelanz, of Peoria, Ill., presenting the Smitty quintet and the large chorus choir pleased the audience Wednesday evening. A special delegation representing the First Baptist church Men's Bible class was present.

This evening Dr. Wells will address his assemblage on the subject, "The Greatest Heart Specialist and the Wisest Man in the World Say You Are A Fool." Congregational singing along with the quintet and choir music will be presented.

Jesus Sums Up His Claims

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

Christ's entry into Jerusalem.

"Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord."—Mark 11:9.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for March 2 is John 12:12-50; Mark 11:1-10, the Memory Verse being Mark 11:9. "Hosanna, Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord.")

The events in the first part of today's lesson occurred on Sunday, April 2, A. D. 30, and those recorded in the rest of the chapter on Tuesday of Holy Week.

Mark tells us that when Jesus and His companions were on their way to Jerusalem for the feast of the Tabernacles, and had come to Bethage and Bethany at the mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples into the village telling them they would find a young colt which had never been ridden. He would be tied, and they were to untie him and bring him to Jesus. If anyone questioned them they were to say, "The Lord had need of him."

This the men did and they were allowed to take the colt to Jesus, and then they put their garments on him and Jesus rode upon him. Many people, knowing that Jesus was going to Jerusalem, gathered to see Him, and when they went to meet Him some spread their garments before Him, and others cut down palm branches and strewed them in the way, crying, "Hosanna, Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord!"

This was Jesus' moment of triumph on earth. The people were recognizing Christ as the Savior, as it is written in Zechariah 9:9, "Behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt."

The disciples did not understand this at first, "but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of Him, and that they had done those things unto Him."

Pharisees Angered
The Pharisees, however, said among themselves: "Perceive ye how ye avail nothing? Behold, the world is gone after him." They were jealous and afraid of this Man and His influence with the people.

On Tuesday, "certain Greeks" who had come to worship at the feast, came to Philip and said to him, "Sir, we would see Jesus." Philip told Andrew, and the two told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit."

And later, knowing what was ahead of Him, Jesus said, "Now is My soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify Thy name."

"Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again." The people who stood by heard the voice, and some thought it thundered, but some said, "An angel spake to Him." Jesus said, "This voice came not because of Me, but for your sakes."

"Now is the judgment of this world, now shall the prince of this world be cast out."

"And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me. This He said, signifying what death He should die."

The people answered Him, "We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever and how sayest Thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?"

Then Jesus said, "Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth."

To us it seems that if only we could have had the privilege of being with Jesus, we would have understood His words, but the people that went in droves to see this Man who wrought miracles, did good deeds and said beautiful things were not understanding or believing.

John says, "But though He had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on Him."

"That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of Lord been revealed?"

He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, nor be converted, and I should heal them."

How true were Jesus' words about the seed of the wheat. Except it was buried in the ground and changed its form—died—wheat would not grow from it. If Jesus had not suffered on the cross, made the supreme sacrifice, the millions who now believe on Him would not believe.

As it was, even though His enemies sought His death and many who heard Him and saw Him work refused to accept Him, many did believe, even many in high places. John tells us, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on Him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue."

For they liked the praise of men more than the praise of God." (Distributed by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Seek Assailant Of Young Mother In Eureka, Calif.

EUREKA, Cal., Feb. 27.—(INS)—An all-points police bulletin was broadcast from Eureka today for the apprehension of a man identified as Dee Perry, accused attacker of Mrs. Helen Matjich, 22-year-old Eureka Mother.

Police Chief Basil Gregory said Mrs. Matjich's three-week-old infant was found dead in the Eureka apartment in which the mother was criminally assaulted yesterday. The cause of the infant's death could not be determined immediately.

The unconscious young mother and the dead infant were discovered when the woman's husband, Walter Matjich, returned home last night. Chief Gregory said that a note claiming that the writer was the child's father was found stuck in the doorway of the Matjich home. He said it was signed "Dee Perry."

Mrs. Matjich, questioned at a hospital, told Gregory her assailant was a man known to her as Dee Perry.

Such cheap heroics are deeply discouraging to friendly senators who had hoped to get some ideas for the correction of admitted abuses from these labor bosses and to reach an agreement with them. Their testimony last week makes it clearly impossible to do this. Clearly, you can't discuss with them what is best to do when they insist on doing nothing. It reveals them as obtuse, shortsighted, stubborn men, swollen by the preferential treatment they have been given and unwilling to relinquish any of the power they have wielded so damagingly. It ought to make more certain an effective law. Clearly, the hope of Senator Ives for a labor-management conference at which a sound basis for the correction of abuses could be reached is without foundation. How can an agreement to correct abuses be reached with men who refuse to concede there are any abuses to correct?

"saving America" without mentioning that union labor was very highly compensated for the work it did, is just absurd. However, that makes no difference to the breast-beating Mr. Murray. That is the labor-union leaders' story, and that they stick to. When any sort of law to correct the labor abuses, denied by the Messrs. Murray and Green but conceded by everyone else is proposed, Mr. Murray cries "So this is our reward!" and intimates that the nation and Congress are ungrateful which is too silly to argue about. His mouthy young aide, Mr. Reuther, articulates on the same level. SUCH cheap heroics are deeply discouraging to friendly senators who had hoped to get some ideas for the correction of admitted abuses from these labor bosses and to reach an agreement with them. ## Lawyers Watch Bill In Congress

Graham Steers Measure
Through House Judiciary Committee

MAKES CHANGE IN LEGAL PROCEDURE

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Washington Correspondent of The News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—New Castle lawyers will find much interest in a bill which Representative Louis E. Graham of Beaver has just steered through the House of Representatives authorizing courts to consider evidence obtained from offenders even though those offenders have not been arranged within a reasonable time.

The bill amends existing basic law by stipulating that "failure to observe the requirement of law as to the time within which a person under arrest must be brought before a committing officer shall not render inadmissible any evidence otherwise admissible."

Congressman Graham was chairman of the judiciary subcommittee which considered the bill. He argued to the House that the bill's passage was essential to offset a recent Supreme Court decision. The court, in the so-called McNabb case, threw out the conviction of three alleged murderers because they had not been arraigned before a committing officer within a reasonable period after their arrest.

Confessed Offenders Released
Mr. Graham declared that under the Supreme Court ruling, scores of confessed offenders are being released.

"The statement was made before our committee that on an average of 50 men a day are released, men who have made confessions and then set up the fact that they were immediately taken before a committing magistrate and given a preliminary hearing and arraigned, with the result that all over the United States hardened criminals are being released," the Beaver congressman told the House.

Congressman Graham added that if no legislation is enacted to counteract the Supreme Court decision, "you can almost bid goodbye to effective law enforcement in the United States."

Graham declared that the Supreme Court formula will have the effect of virtually wiping out all confessions. He said that after an accused is arraigned and secures counsel there is little likelihood of a confession.

Opponents of the bill sought to use this statement as an argument that offenders were entitled to be arraigned immediately and supplied with counsel, but their objections were shouted down. The bill now moves to the Senate for consideration.

Sentiment On Milk Deliveries Will Be Aired

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Public sentiment on restricted deliveries of milk in Pennsylvania will be aired today during a Milk Control commission hearing at Harrisburg.

Dealers, generally favored continued every other day deliveries, will be represented by Willis F. Daniels, Harrisburg attorney.

A spokesman said they probably would urge the commission to retain the present regulations limiting deliveries to four days a week due to shortages of trucks, cases and bottles.

"For dealers it is a matter of necessity, not choice that restrictions continue," he asserted.

He indicated production costs would be "increased substantially" if a change were made and predicted consumers would be willing to abide by the present system.

Doorstep deliveries were curtailed during the war by the federal government to save manpower and transportation facilities. The commission continued restrictions in November, 1945.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 27.—John Wayne isn't going to let the tremendous success of his first effort as a producer change his acting career.

When your reporter learned that John's first brain-child, "The Angel and the Bad Man," had grossed a record $33,000 in its first week at San Francisco, your reporter wanted to know if he planned to quit acting and become strictly a producer.

John looked back in astonishment. "Heck, no," he replied, "I'd be a darned fool if I did, what with all the money you can make acting."

Of course, the words "heck" and "darned" are used loosely here, because Wayne is talking to Todd would naturally use phrases slightly more pungent.

The conversation took place on the set of RKO's "Tycoon," in which John is co-starring with Laraine Day.

"I like producing a lot," John explained, "I sure get a big kick at the success of my first effort. While I was making the picture, I knew it was a love story than a western. It was a little out of the studio's line."

His contract calls for him to produce five pictures in five years for Republic. He isn't sure what his next one will be.

"It's hard to find good stories, but I hope to line up something soon," he said.

He is particularly anxious to do a good sea story, if he can get the right one.

Right then, Director Richard

Wallace broke up the conversation and John Wayne, successful producer, went back to his acting.

There's one gorgeous girl in Hollywood no one in his right mind should ever treat with the slightest discourtesy. Her name is Charmienne Barker. She has six husky brothers who adore her.

Charmienne is a 20-year-old brunette with brown eyes. She is five feet, six and a half inches tall and weighs 120 pounds.

At the moment Charmienne is dancing in "If You Knew Susie" with Eddie Cantor and Joan Davis.

Your reporter might not have heard of her if Charlie O'Curran, the dance director, had not mentioned her.

"I wonder if she is any relation to that boss of yours downtown, but I doubt it," Charlie said, "nobody with a face like his could have such a beautiful child."

It turned out, as expected, there was no relationship. Charmienne was born in Denver, but came to Hollywood with her parents, and her six brothers, when she was five.

The conversation disclosed that Charmienne not only has beauty but brains. Her scholastic record at the Hollywood and University High schools was notable.

Runs Tiny Concern Into Huge Business

Detroit Nurses $85 Business Into Near Million Dollar Business Enterprise

DETROIT.—(INS)—Edward Galli of Detroit has a formula for success.

It is the simple precept that commands: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

The 36-year-old Galli should know because he followed that rule to build up his trucking company from an $85 business to a near-million-dollar concern.

Galli is majority owner of the Dearborn Machine Movers company, employing 200 persons, of whom 90 per cent are stockholders.

In his own words, he is successful because:

"I just remember what I wanted when I was working for somebody else myself. Then I do the best I can to get those things for my employees."

Among those things are a recreation room, replete with billiard tables, facilities for parties and a bar.

In addition, his finance office has a "loan" window where his workers can borrow money to finance the building of a home or similarly worthy project. And he charges no interest.

Galli's sense of business is a deliberate thing, conceived back in the depression days when he, with most of the people he knew, was accepting welfare aid in order to exist.

G.I. Insurance Boom Is Foreseen

Rush Is Expected On Part Of World War Two Vets To Renew Life Insurance

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—With the enactment of new legislation to permit ex-servicemen to reinstate their lapsed National Service Life Insurance policies without physical examinations, Veterans Administration offices in this area were preparing for another boom in the G.I. insurance business.

The new act of Congress, signed by President Truman last Friday was followed by an announcement from General Omar N. Bradley, administrator of Veterans Affairs, that the liberalized reinstatement provisions will now continue in effect until August 1.

G. Frank Hartigan, VA insurance officer for the Pittsburgh regional area, said that an estimated 83,000 veterans in the Pittsburgh area have permitted their insurance policies to lapse since their discharge from the service, and that it is expected that most of these men will want to reinstate.

Last month, immediately before the previous deadline for reinstatement without physical examinations, the 32 VA offices in the Pittsburgh area reported within a period of two weeks, more than 10,000 veterans revived lapsed NSLI policies to a total value of more than $50,000,000.

Under this new act it is again possible for lapsed policies to be reinstated without a physical examination, if the veteran will submit to the VA a signed statement certifying that his state of health is as good as it was on the date on which the policy lapsed.

For veterans who are still carrying term policies, only two monthly premiums need be paid, one for the grace period and one for the current month.

For those who previously converted to one of the six permanent plans, all back premiums must be paid.

Polish People Have Faith In U. S. Currency

WARSAW, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Americans and the rest of the world man worry that the dollar is getting inflated, but the people of Poland have absolute faith in U. S. currency.

There are many billions of dollars in Poland, no one knows just how many. It is the only money which Poles consider really secure. These dollars are the main basis of the black market, selling at from eight to ten times the official exchange of 100 zlotys to the dollar. The black market rate varies but the changes are due entirely to Polish causes and have nothing to do with what the dollar can buy in the United States.

When a heavy nationwide tax was levied recently, the dollar went down to 700 because people had to have zlotys to pay their government. Now it has gone back up to about 900 zlotys.

Poles Are Hoarders
Some American currency has come into Poland from Germany since the war, but most of it has been in the country for years. Poles are congenital hoarders and before the war they received 20 million dollars yearly from their relatives in the U. S. Most of this was socked away, hidden so securely that even during six years of occupation, the Nazis didn't find much.

Now, it is coming out because living is costly and people have to dig into their reserves to subsist.

In Poland, one sees bills that ceased being in circulation in America years ago. Pre-depression gold certificates are frequent.

Americans in Poland are often asked by Poles whether "big dollars" are still valid. They mean the large sized bills issued in the United States before the First World War, many of which have been hoarded since the first decade of this century.

Since no one is quite certain how far a "big dollar" would go at an American bank, the Poles circulate them among themselves at 60 percent of the rate for new bills. Fresh crisp bills are worth more on the black market than wrinkled ones and large denominations, $50 or $100, fetch a better rate than $5 or $10 notes.

But nothing can convince most Poles that an American note, no matter when or where issued, would not be worth exactly what it says if the exchange were free.

The best example of this faith came from a man in Cracow who last week showed a $100 bill issued in Richmond, Va., in 1864. An International News Service correspondent told him it was a nice souvenir, but that Confederate money wasn't good for anything else.

"Oh, no," he said, "it's an American 100 dollar bill. The date doesn't matter. All American money is good, the best in the world."

Tests have shown that the most hair on the average man's face is on the center of the chin, where there are an average of 750 hairs to the square inch. The upper lip, the upper cheek, and the lower cheek follow in the order named.

Sugar Ration Is Boosted To 35
Pounds This Year

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The government on Wednesday increased the 1947 sugar ration to 35 pounds for each domestic user—a boost of 10 pounds over last year.

The increase was ordered under the quota of 6,800,000 tons allotted to the United States by the International Emergency Food Council. The allocation is one million 203 thousand tons greater than last year's.

The changes were announced in a joint statement of the office of Temporary Controls and the Agriculture Department.

Says 125,000 Freight Cars Needed In Year To Beat Shortage

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—A spokesman for the nation's railroads said Wednesday that freight car output must hit 125,000 a year—nearly four times the present rate—to lick the critical car shortage.

Robert V. Fletcher, president of the Association of American Railroads, made that statement at a conference of railroadmen, steel company executives, car builders and government officials.

Fletcher said that a current program to produce 84,000 cars a year is inadequate. He added that "considerable doubt" has been raised as to whether steel companies are abiding even by the 7,000-car monthly agreement.

The steel company's answer to Fletcher's statement was due to come later in the conference. Sen. Reed (R) Kan., chairman of a senate subcommittee investigating the car shortage, said after the morning session that he was "highly hopeful" that a solution of the car shortage would be found.

Laying Contest
Is Quarantined

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's 1946-47 official egg-laying test at Harrisburg was under quarantine today following the discovery of Newcastle disease, a nervous ailment of chickens.

Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst reported that all of the 1,280 hens and pullets entered in the test which began October 1 would be slaughtered in September when the contest was completed.

Source of the infection at the 16-year-old testing ground for the nation's poultry breeds could not be determined, Horst explained. The disease made its appearance in Pennsylvania less than a year ago.

No chickens have died as a result of the disease but egg production in the test has been seriously reduced, he added. Owners of poultry to be slaughtered will be reimbursed from sale proceeds, Horst explained.

"Every effort is being made to control spread of the highly infectious disease in the four egg-laying test buildings," Horst said. "It started abruptly and could not be stopped. It spread in a few weeks through the entire premises. All affected birds appear to be recovering."

"Their egg production dropped to zero per week in some cases, but the birds appear to resume normal production on recovery in from two to five weeks," he added.

Declares Majority Of Americans Just Tired

By ELIZABETH FAIRBAIRN
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—A majority of Americans are just tired—not lowbrows—an eminent psychologist said today in answer to long-standing assertions that the nation was lagging culturally.

Dr. David Pablo Boder, professor of psychology at the Illinois Institute of Technology and director of the school's psychological museum, thus projected himself into the verbal debate initiated by worried critics of the nation's taste.

In an interview, Dr. Boder, who admits he's fatigued by it all himself, blamed the apparent success of what critics have called an avalanche of "B" motion pictures, inane popular songs and poor stage productions on a people's "fatigue."

Building For Years
This state of affairs has been building for decades, he said, and was speeded to its current climax by the dislocations of war. He declared:

"Superficial songs and superficial motion pictures with an element of acute emotional excitement appear a characteristic of a people who in their leisure hours are greatly fatigued."

Dr. Boder then turned to his thesis: "One must have enough rest to use leisure time properly," and said candidly:

"A man or woman who in addition to eight hours of working, has spent about two hours in overcrowded conveyances getting to and from work is not perceptive to any recreation that is interwoven with mental effort and a challenge to his judgment."

Seeking Haven

Boder declared that the great postwar popularity of bars, denounced in scathing terms by religious and civic leaders, in many cases can be attributed to the tired man's seeking a haven.

He described the bar as a "neighborhood club" where drinking often is incidental. However, he pointed out, that drinking as an escape from fatigue can become a "vicious circle."

The psychologist, who has achieved international fame for various studies in his field, put the finger on the housing shortage, the instability of prices and resultant close budgeting and the long-term trend toward city life for his self-styled definition of the state of the nation.

At the same time, he expressed little fear that "fatigued" Americans would be led astray by the type of artistic fare their "tired" minds seem to crave.

Dr. Boder said the popularity of soap operas stemmed from the minor amount of mental effort which is required to follow them. He explained:

"A housewife busy cleaning her home certainly is in no mood to listen to a book review—what she wants is basic entertainment in which the emotional trend is kept at a low level so it can be easily grasped."

Eventually, the doctor said, this period of "fatigue" is bound to level off as we lick its concomitant causes and perhaps this nation will enjoy a golden age such as that of ancient Greece.

EXTENDS AUTHORITY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—President Truman on Wednesday signed a bill extending until next July 1 the authority of the maritime commission to operate merchant vessels.

The commission's emergency authorization, inherited from the war shipping administration, would have expired Feb. 28.

The chief executive, however, requested the extension in view of the present heavy burden on American shipping interests and a resolution was introduced by Rep. Bradley (R) Mich., chairman of the house merchant marine committee.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends each wood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to give your money back. (Adv.)

Victims Of Crash At Purdue Improve

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 27.—(INS)—A majority of persons still hospitalized by injuries suffered in the Purdue fieldhouse bleacher collapse were reported in improved condition today.

The nurse-in-charge at St. Elizabeth hospital in Lafayette said none of the patients under treatment there remained on the critical list, although two were considered "just fair."

A physician at the home hospital had a similar report.

Three persons, all Purdue students, were fatally injured Monday night when the temporary stands broke under the weight of 3,400 spectators. Hundreds were hurt.

The bleachers collapsed as the fans rose at half-time to cheer a Purdue basketball team that led Wisconsin, 34 to 33. The fieldhouse has been closed pending investigation of the tragedy.

Stenographer Is Slain In Montreal

MONTREAL, Quebec, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The killer of an attractive stenographer in an uptown Montreal hotel was sought by police today.

The victim was identified as Madeleine Desrochers, 25 and had registered at the hotel six days ago with a man who signed the name of Laplante. She was found by a chambermaid. Police said her head had been bashed in and that she had been strangled with a scarf.

The killer left a note to police saying he was in love with the girl but was unable to marry her as he was already married. He said he had slain her to save her from committing suicide.

The Jains, an Indian religious sect, believe that the soul has colors, three good and three bad, indicating its character.

Probably the most fertile fish in the world is the common ling, which produces 30,000,000 eggs at a time.

NEW ORGANIZATION

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—(INS)—A new organization known as the FFB—First Families of Brooklyn—appeared today.

Despite its impressive name the organization is open to all citizens of Brooklyn who want to join in the "glorification of Brooklyn". The organization has applied for incorporation papers describing Brooklyn as the "garden spot of the world, the greatest community to live in, do business in, to love in, to die in."

Republicans May Gain Control Of Chicago Again

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Chicago began forming battle lines today for its important mayoralty election April 1 amid indications that increasing Republican strength may wrest the city from 14 years of Democratic control.

In primary contests this week voters in the normally Democratic city nominated candidates for mayor, elected aldermen in 32 wards and left undecided 18 other aldermanic seats.

The 18 aldermen will be chosen in run-off contests at the mayoralty election because yesterday's results did not give a majority vote to any one candidate in the wards thus affected.

The Republican total vote in the primaries indicated a sharp increase and the Democratic total showed a falling off from the 1943 primaries. Republican leaders were quick to point out that they seldom rally their real strength unless they wage all-out election campaigns.

Democrats elected 26 aldermen while the Republicans were certain of six.

Retiring Democratic Mayor Edward J. Kelly was absent from the city for the first time in his 50 years in politics. He is vacationing at Palm Springs, Cal.

A total of 802,902 votes was the latest projected return cast by the combined parties.

The modern expression "hand-writing on the wall" originates in the Biblical story of the Chaldean king, Belshazzar. At his feast, cryptic words appeared on the wall, which the Prophet Daniel translated as indicating the overthrow of Belshazzar's rule by the Persians.

Lawrence County Farm, Home News

By Extension Representative, Lewis C. Dayton, Agriculturist.

GRAPE VINES CAN BE PRUNED EARLY

This is a good time to prune grape vines according to Carl Bittner, fruit extension specialist of Pennsylvania State College. Mr. Bittner recently demonstrated the pruning of fruit trees and grapes at the W. C. Hilleman orchard, Wilmington road. To avoid breaking canes, the work should be done when vines are not frozen. If the work is delayed until the middle of March or later, the vines may "bleed" when cut. While bleeding does not seriously injure them, Mr. Bittner urges completion of the pruning before it occurs.

Care should be taken to recognize the difference between canes of last year's growth and the older wood, for those buds which produce the 1947 crop occur only on last year's canes. Not all of these canes are of equal value for fruit production. The short, spindly canes and the heavy, long, over-vigorous, long-jointed "bull" canes are comparatively unproductive.

Most productive canes are those about five to eight feet in length, about as thick as a lead pencil or slightly thicker and fairly short-jointed. Even on these best canes, some buds are more productive than others. The first two or three buds at the base of the cane and those near tips of the cane produce fewer and smaller clusters than those in the center of the cane. Tips of the canes, should, therefore be cut off, leaving about eight to 12 buds.

Successful grape pruning consists of discarding all unnecessary old wood, as well as under-vigorous and over-vigorous canes of last year's growth. Save just enough good bearing canes (with tips removed) to carry what the vine is capable of maturing properly.

In addition to the canes, it is good practice to save several, well-placed spurs (canes cut back to two buds) to produce canes that will be properly located and suitable for saving as fruiting wood when the vine is pruned next year.

Persons interested in grapes may obtain a specially prepared mimeographed sheet on detailed grape vine pruning operations, from the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

Eight Americans Under Surveillance Of Cuban Police

Seen As Possible Accomplices Of Charles "Lucky" Luciano, Is Havana Report

HAVANA, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Eight Americans in Havana were said to be under surveillance of Cuban secret police today as possible accomplices of Charles "Lucky" Luciano.

Meanwhile, proceedings were advanced for the deportation of Luciano, former New York vice king, to his native Italy. The deportation draft was in the hands of President Ramon Grau San Martin, and the announcement of his signature was awaited.

Secret police would not comment on reports of their observation of the Americans. But it was learned from reliable sources that particularly close watch was being kept on two of them.

Interior Minister Alfredo Pequenao said that Luciano will be shunted out of Cuba by the first available means after proceedings are completed.

As there is no regular ship service between Cuba and Italy, it is likely that the unwanted gangster will leave by plane. The government said Luciano's offer to leave voluntarily had been rejected because expulsion proceedings will make it impossible for him ever to enter the country again.

Minister of State Rafael Gonzalez revealed that his department never received notification of the United States ban on shipment of medical drugs to Cuba.

But Health Minister Jose Raudou said a representative of the U. S. Narcotics Bureau had visited him and explained the reasons for the embargo. He would not give details of the conversation.

Luciano remained under confinement at the Tiscornia immigration camp, where he was reported to be attempting a habeas corpus appeal.

Mercer Pastor Is Selected For New Presbytery Post

MERCER, Feb. 27.—At a meeting of the Erie Presbytery held in Meadville, Rev. J. Davis Illingworth of the Mercer Presbyterian church was chosen to fill the newly created position of executive secretary of the Presbytery, with headquarters in Titusville.

A committee of the Presbytery was appointed in September to canvass the situation and make recommendations. This committee presented its final report on Monday, revealing Rev. J. Davis Illingworth was the unanimous choice and in turn received every vote of the members of Presbytery on a secret ballot. The election is for a period of three years.

The position will demand the entire time of the executive, covering northwestern Pennsylvania as far north as Bradford, with executive covering northwestern Pennsylvania as far north as Bradford, with Mercer the most southern point. He will have supervision over 65 churches with a total membership of about 22,000.

The popular Mercer minister made no statement concerning his acceptance of the position, saying he has to present the matter to his session and congregation.

Twenty-Four Cases For Trial In Mercer

MERCER, Feb. 27.—District Attorney Edwin C. Moon and his assistant, Attorney Donovan Henry, have prepared 24 cases to present to the March grand jury when it convenes next Monday in Mercer.

Contrary to the usual trend of numerous cases against persons charged with driving while intoxicated, only three of that type are on the current list. The district attorney stated no major criminal cases are on the list.

Among those to be considered by the grand jury are three for burglary, five for assault and battery, five for larceny, four on moral charges, and one each for conducting a lottery, sodomy and possession of burglary tools.

PRESENTS TROPHY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—President Truman today presented the Harmon Aviation trophy to Juan T. Trippe, president of Pan American World Airways.

The award was made for Trippe's "outstanding leadership patriotism, unselfish devotion to the security and economic progress of the United States" in the critical days preceding and during the second world war.

The huge bronze trophy, gold medal and certificate of citation were presented, on behalf of the Ligue Internationale Des Aviateurs in colorful ceremony in the president's office.

Bad posture is almost universal, and has been characterized as "debilitant slouch".

CLEANING FLUIDS POISONOUS

NEW YORK.—(INS)—Dry cleaning fluids are poisonous if taken internally. If a person swallows some, make him vomit at once and call a doctor immediately. The best ways of making a person vomit are to have him put his finger in the back of his throat, or make him swallow warm salt water, mustard water or soapy water, says the Safety Research Institute.

HANGED IN BRITAIN

LONDON, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Walter Rowland, whose "double" confessed and later denied having committed his crime, was hanged today at Strangeways jail in Manchester, England.

Rowland saw the brief light of hope earlier in the week when David Ware, who closely resembles him, "confessed" to the murder for which Rowland had been convicted.

Ware retracted his "confession" on Tuesday. He told authorities he had "admitted" murdering the girl Rowland actually killed so people would think him a hero.

(INS)—A 17-year-old Long Beach high school girl, Jacqueline Mae Stang, was in a hospital today suffering from shock as a result of torture at the hands of a sadistic stranger who left her bound and gagged beside a road.

Police said a man forced the girl into his car while she was going home from Polytechnic high school and drove her to a lonely spot in the refinery district.

There he stripped off her clothing, ripped them into strips with which he bound and gagged her. Then he burned her wrist with a cigarette and scratched her body with a sharp object.

The abductor then drove off. A passing motorist found the girl and took her to Seaside Hospital. Police said she had not been criminally attacked. The girl was near collapse from hysteria, however.

Tests Land Law*A FORMER magistrate in New York City, Bernard A. anism or Soviet Communism, to believe that the tried and proven doctrines of Americanism are outmoded and indefensible. It is easy for romantic young minds to picture universal happiness under a regime of government controls over the lives and activities of the masses.

The obligation of believers in fundamental Americanism is to dispel these illusions of youth and to prove to them by example the superiority of the American way of life. Our young people need to be dramatically reminded of the preciousness of freedom of speech and religion by comparison with the lack of these freedoms in ideologically "democratic" Communist governments. They need to be reminded of the difference in industrial systems under which a worker labors three months to buy a pair of shoes, as against the American system wherein a day's work suffices. They need to be reminded that in the United States three out of every four families have an automobile, every other one a radio and all a higher standard of living than in any other country in the world.

Ever since the beginning of the New Deal this country has been beset by "youth movements" designed to further the causes of Communism under the pretext of promoting youthful education. Sometimes it occurs to me, as it must occur to many other sane Americans, that one of the best moves the United States could make would be to send to countries ruled by Communism or radicalism, a shipload of American girls and boys to spend a year or two and learn from actual experience the facts about dictatorial government and its relation to the individual. The experience of one such delegation, if truthfully reported, would do more to disillusion the young victims of radical propaganda and inspire true appreciation of the American system of government than all the "conferences" and "seminars" that could be devised by the Eleanor Roosevelts and the Henry Wallaces of the country.

The future of the United States depends upon the sanity of youth. If our youth can be shown the truth, it will take care of the future.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

"I have noticed so many young men let their women companions alight first from street cars. Give us, please, the rule of precedence where a man and woman are traveling together."

Answer: A man should allow his woman companion to precede him into any vehicle so that he may give her assistance. He should always allow her to do so whenever it is courteous and expedient, going up and down the stairs unless it is a dark or dangerous railway when he should go first to lead the way. He should always give a woman the right of way whenever it is possible and follow her instead of walking in front of her. If in leaving a crowded elevator when he is nearer the door, he should step out first and of course wait for her, rather than start down the corridor, leaving her to follow him. In leaving a vehicle, he should alight first, always, so that he may assist her. He precedes her only when by so doing it is to her comfort and advantage. Another instance is upon entering a restaurant having no hostess or waiter to escort them to a table or a theater having no usher to show them to a seat.

Question: I always have difficulty in finding a suitable closing for a letter to a not-too-intimate friend. Can you suggest a few?

Answer: Yours sincerely and sincerely yours, preceded by such phrases as "with kindest regards" or "our best wishes to you all" are always safe and free from coldness. The "yours" is something omitted. "I remain" is unnecessary because it is implied and its use is stilted.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped self-addressed envelopes.

Public Address System In Use

New Call System Will Aid In Locating Persons At Court House

OTHER NEWS OF COUNTY AFFAIRS

There isn't much chance of hiding from the telephone in the court house now. The public address system has been installed and a call to the court house exchange is re-broadcast over the PA system. As yet there are not enough horns in the court house to cover all places where an attorney might be. It has been suggested the commissioners might defray the expense of the new system by charging candidates for commercial plugs. For example the telephone operator puts out a call, "calling Attorney Blackstone Habburabi. This call the courtesy of Joe Bloax, candidate upon the Independent ticket for county surveyor."

Or some enterprising lawyer might take time on the PA. After a call has been put out there might be included a singing commercial something like this "you want a divorce, of course of course, don't waste your time, see Felix Morse."

There are enough girls in the court house with good voices to get soloists, quartets or a chorus.

Millburn grange hall was the scene of a delightful gathering on Wednesday evening, February 19, when over one hundred neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Best gathered there to celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Invitations had been sent for January 28, the date of their marriage but the sudden death of Mr. Best's father made it necessary to postpone the affair until February 19. Social chat, dancing, and a short program of anecdotes told by Stephen Lukacs, and music by Mrs. Clement accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Hume entertained.

A delicious lunch, with a beautiful wedding cake, was served by friends at tables beautifully decorated with blue and silver. The bride and groom of twenty-five years were

Food Sold In State Watched

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Pennsylvanians were assured today by the state agriculture department that chemists and food agents "constantly watch the nature and quality" of foods sold in the commonwealth.

Deputy Secretary Willard S. Hagar told the Harrisburg Kiwanis club last night the bureau of foods and chemistry maintained a constant watch on food supplies and that hundreds of violators were convicted and fined each year.

"Our forefathers thrived although they knew nothing about vitamins, calories and synthetic substitutes," Hagar said. "But with the development of food processing and the preparation of foods away from the home, many foods are changed due to refinement, preparation and storage."

"That is why we must have and enforce food laws for the protection of public health as well as the public economy and the stabilization of the food processing industry," Hagar added.

Gadgets Give Today's Infant Every Possible Boost To His Comfort

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The infant of today and tomorrow is going to be a glorified little cuss. Well, anyway, he can be if his parents shell out the wherewithal to equip him with the necessary accoutrements to infancy now available.

There's everything from sterile, collapsible, disposable nursing bottles to incubators complete with respirators and "self-feeders" for today's infant.

Vitamins, penicillin, soaps, talcum powder containing olive oil or germicides to prevent or cure rashes, diapers with new absorbency, scientific toys from teething rings to bathtub floaters, baby foods, nipples, bottles, prepared formulas, shoes, walkers, pillows, cribs—all with new scientific twists—are ready for the infant.

Gadgets Displayed
The fellows whose job it is to convince mama and papa these gadgets are indispensable hauled them out on display today at the 15th annual meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics, now in session in Pittsburgh.

Doctors from all parts of the country got a look at them. Oddly, the ultimate buyer—the parent—was barred from the nearly half-mile of display.

The disposable nursing bottle perhaps was the most revolutionary item on display.

It is merely an envelope of filmy substance that feels like rubber but actually is similar to cellophane. The "bottles" come in rolls of 50.

The mother merely clips one off the roll—it's sealed at the other end—puts the formula in it, and places a wide-mouth nipple on the other end.

Requires Less Effort
It requires less effort on the part of the infant than the conventional glass bottle, because it collapses as the formula is taken out. Then, when it is empty, it is merely tossed away. No more bottle-boiling for today's baby.

For the premature infant, there are new incubators with self-feed-attachments operated by tiny pumps. And they can be operated while the child, if necessary, is wearing a tiny respirator similar to those used by fire departments to revive gas and smoke victims and drowning persons.

The salesmen even used live models to demonstrate their wares in some cases.

Yes, Grandma would be in a dither if she thought there could be so many complications to rearing an infant as now is provided.

Trial Of Former Judge Is Started In Federal Court

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The trial of former Judge Albert W. Johnson and five co-defendants moved swiftly through initial stages in federal court today at Harrisburg.

Twelve tentative jurors were selected during the morning session. The government will be limited to six challenges and the defense to 10 during the afternoon session.

Seventy-four minutes were required for Federal Judge James A. Fee, of the Oregon district court, to read a 30-page indictment handed down at Scranton by a federal grand jury September 11, 1945 after a 17-months long investigation of the middle court district.

"As I said before, the indictment is a formal charge," Fee told prospective jurors. "You cannot accept any of the allegations as truth until they are proven by evidence or witnesses."

None of the tentative jurors were resident of the upper anthracite fields which were included in the court district in which Johnson held court for more than 20 years.

Allegheny County Detectives Arrest Six In Robberies

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Allegheny county detectives today claimed solution of a series of armed robberies in the Pittsburgh area following arrest of three men and three women after a wild chase through north side streets.

Two of the men and two women were arrested last night when three detectives tried to halt them for questioning and they fled in their car. The chase came to an abrupt end when the suspects ran through a red light and crashed into the car of a city policeman.

The other man and woman, Francis X. Morin, 36, and Miss Lorraine Krohe, 18, were arrested shortly after in a rooming house.

Those in the smashed car, none of whom was injured, were identified by County Detective Chief Joseph M. Stack as Andrew J. Tasos, 19; James W. Hall, 24; Mrs. Ruth L. Ellen, 21, and Mrs. Marian E. Nanz, 23.

Hall had a bullet wound in the thigh believed inflicted Tuesday night by Patrolman Ira Palmer, who exchanged shots with a trip attempting to hold up a Western Union office.

Stack implicated the group in seven holdups of loan companies and Western Union offices in Pittsburgh, Tarentum and New Kensington.

Geoffrey Saint-Hilaire was a French zoologist. He lived from 1772 to 1844. In 1793, when only 21 years old, he became professor of vertebrate zoology in the newly instituted Museum of Paris and began to make the famous collection of animals in the Jardin des Plantes.

About 515 million cans of U. S. fruit and vegetables were produced in the 1946 season, about double that of the 1939 season.

Mother, This Home-Mixed Cough Relief Is Wonderful

Saves Real Money. No Cooking. Quick Results.

To get the most surprising relief from coughs due to colds, you can easily prepare a medicine, right in your own kitchen. It's very easy—needs no cooking, and tastes so good that children take it willingly. But you'll say it's hard to beat for results.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar.

Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex in every way.

from any drugstore, and pour it into a pint bottle. Fill up with your syrup. This gives you a full pint of really splendid cough syrup—about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and lasts a long time.

And for real, quick relief, it's very effective. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for quick action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you.

Gives Methods To Rid Germans Of Nazism Love

Admiral Says Allies Must Show People Socialism Cost Them Victory In War

By FRANCES MUSIC (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—A Nazi admiral of World War II declared today that the only way to break lingering devotion to the national socialist system is to show the German people that it cost them victory.

The naval leader was Vice Admiral Eberhard Weichold, former commander in chief, Mediterranean. The United States Navy department made public his views, written under instructions from the British.

Weichold maintained that the national socialist system ruined Germany's military power by destroying qualities of leadership.

He asserted that "from the lack of these qualities resulted the loss of the war, for without such leadership the greatest assembly of force remains a dead mass."

Cites Mistakes
The German admiral elaborated at length on mistakes of the Nazi high command, among them the underestimating of naval power.

Weichold declared: "Many sections of the German people have already had their eyes opened considerably to this state of affairs, but it is necessary to enlighten them all. Only out of the conviction of the whole community can the foundation for a new spiritual revival rise."

He explained that otherwise the German people, described as having always been militaristic, could sustain belief that in the military sphere at least national socialism had achieved something positive.

Weichold maintained that if examination of the system was restricted to the political or ethical-human sphere it could be argued that only the material superiority of the enemy crushed the German people.

Gives Views
The admiral, in declaring that this was not the case, asserted: "Such a contention, which towards the end of the war was widely disseminated on the part of the national socialists, must be refuted if dangerous seeds for the future development of the German people are not to remain."

Weichold also expressed belief that the inherently continental-mindedness of the Germans should be broadened by the study of the sea.

He said that this would teach them to look at things from an international rather than a national point of view, leading them ultimately to individualistic and democratic thinking.

Are You Haptical, Visual, In-Between?

Pennsylvania State College Professor Gives Classifications In Art Appreciation

STATE COLLEGE, Feb. 27.—Are you a haptical, a visual, or an in-between?

Dr. Viktor Lowenfeld, professor of art education at the Pennsylvania State College, says that all individuals fall into one of these three categories.

While studying art of the blind, Dr. Lowenfeld noted that most blind persons in their work had a tendency to exaggerate the size of the hands or other strained muscles, a trait that indicated they were haptical. But he learned also from experimentation on a large scale that not all blind people were haptical and not all other people were visual.

The aptitude of the visual, he says, is to use his eyes for observation, and he possesses unusual ability to visualize details. He can integrate partial impressions for purposes of orientation.

"While riding in a train," Dr. Lowenfeld explains, "a haptical sees merely pieces of landscape through the moving train window. The visual is able to integrate these pieces in his mind into one landscape."

Dr. Lowenfeld points out that these traits are important in selecting men for certain jobs. The haptical, for example, would be the better man for mechanical jobs or duties where skillful fingers are needed. The visual would be the better man in jobs which make use of his ability to see and observe such as a surveyor, architect or an airplane pilot.

Tests designed by Dr. Lowenfeld were used during World War II by the army air forces to determine whether men were good potential pilots.

Louis Pasteur, French scientist, found a way to destroy the bacteria in milk without affecting its flavor or food value.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent urination passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Armored Truck Driver Attacked By Chicago Bandit

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—(INS)—A Chicago armored truck driver was hospitalized today with a possible fractured skull because he resisted an armed bandit.

But the money bag he fought for was safe. It contained "more than $5,000" according to Diversey Currency Exchanges, Inc.

The Driver, Harry Lanbe, 57, was entering his truck with the money when the bandit poked him in the back with a gun.

"Don't turn around," the gunman warned.

Lange hurled the money bag into the truck and turned on the would-be robber.

He reached for his own revolver. The bandit slugged him in the head with his gun butt, then ran.

Lange, prone on the sidewalk, fired five shots at the fleeing gunman. All missed.

SOMEWHERE—sometime tomorrow
PENNSYLVANIA'S
TWO MILLIONTH
BELL TELEPHONE
will be installed

We won't know where or when, for this TWO-MILLIONTH telephone will be only one of more than 2,000 telephones that will be installed in Pennsylvania before tomorrow is over.

It may be installed in the city, in the suburbs, or in the country... in a home or on a farm... in an office or in a store. Wherever it may be, it will mark the reaching of a notable goal.

That goal, however, is not our most important one. We are completely alive to the fact that thousands of Pennsylvanians are waiting for telephones. And the servicing of them all, as fast as we can get the necessary central office and other equipment, is our number-one objective.

Plan To Build Pipe Lines In Saudi Arabia

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—(INS)—A hint of the tremendous work lying ahead for United States construction companies in Saudi Arabia was found today in an announcement by the Trans-Arabian Pipeline company.

The company announced that contracts for building a network of more than 2,000 miles of oil pipe line in Saudi Arabia have been awarded to various American construction firms.

The announcement was an indication that American capital and American "know-how" will soon be going at full speed in the tremendous task of modernizing Arabia and other nations.

Numerous American construction companies are ready to throw their vast resources of technical knowledge and trained men into the task.

Parents Testify In Son's Trial At Youngstown

Verdict In Trial Of Youths To Slaying Ashtabula Man May Be Reached Soon

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 27.—Attorneys defending Arthur Chapman and Don Frohner, 16-year-old high school boys who have pleaded guilty to slaying William C. Spieth, 52, of Ashtabula, on Wednesday developed the following testimony in the youths' appeal for mercy:

Mrs. Frances Clara Hawk, New Castle, Chapman's mother, blamed her own drinking for her son's downfall.

Ned Chapman, father of Arthur, said Arthur was an "unwanted" child.

Dr. Corinne Baker, psychologist at Youngstown Receiving hospital who examined Frohner and Chapman after the slaying, said: "We feel that Don has some psychopathic traits and is potentially dangerous."

Chapman's mother said she left her son at home so frequently that the latter said he decided to go to Youngstown to live with his father, Ned Chapman.

Prosecutor William A. Ambrose asked: "Do you have any reason for admitting in public that your drinking interfered with your duties to your son?"

Mrs. Hawk replied: "I have sworn to tell the truth for one reason; another reason is that no one knows more than I the loneliness in his (Arthur's) heart."

Mrs. Hawk testified she married Ned Chapman in 1930 and divorced him in 1936, married her second husband in 1936 and lived with him until two years ago, when she divorced him and married her third husband.

Westminster Reports Big Teacher Demand

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 27.—The 38 seniors at Westminster College who are planning to teach school, should have no difficulty finding positions at not less than $1800 a year, according to J. I. Reaney, director of the teacher placement bureau.

Mr. Reaney states that the number of requests for teachers from public school superintendents thus far this year is unprecedented. During the first semester 60 inquiries were received. It is expected that between 300 and 500 inquiries will be received before next fall. The normal number about 300.

From Far Points

Requests for teachers have been received by Mr. Reaney from places as distant as Florida. The University of Florida's teacher placement bureau wrote in December asking for information about anyone interested in living and teaching there. Other inquiries are coming in from all sections of Pennsylvania, from as far west as the Dayton area in Ohio and from Indiana.

The critical shortage of teachers which Mr. Reaney attributes principally to the paradox of low salaries and high living costs, is especially severe in secondary schools. Elementary music, physical education and commercial teachers are in special demand. There are also many openings for language teachers, especially Latin.

Of the 38 seniors at Westminster preparing for secondary education, eight are in English, seven in social studies, six in commercial, five in history, four in speech, two in mathematics and one in economics. Five are in elementary education. There are no seniors preparing in science industry offers much larger salaries for specialists in that field.

Mr. Reaney is of the opinion that the $2400 minimum for teachers proposed in Pennsylvania and in the nation by the National Education Association is a step in the right direction. Unless more and better teachers are secured, society will stagnate, Mr. Reaney believes.

Casualties In Industry Drop

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Total industrial casualties dropped approximately 28 per cent during December, establishing the lowest monthly accident rate of 1946, it was reported today by the department of labor and industry.

The overall decline was counterbalanced by an approximate 14 per cent rise in fatalities, the department added.

A total of 6731 mishaps, including 99 fatal accidents, were reported during the month. Casualties during the year numbered 117,356, including 1136 deaths and 116,220 injuries, it was added.

More than 87 per cent of the accidents were attributed to overloading, overcrowding, use of defective equipment or operating in other unsafe manners, the department reported. The majority of injured were employed in non-manufacturing industries. Nearly all casualties resulted in time losses of over a week.

The December accident rate was 20.6 per cent below that of the same month of 1945 and 31.2 per cent lower than the average monthly injuries during 1946, the department said.

Pittsburgh Jury Frees Three Tried On Bomb Charges

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Acquittal of three men today marked the first effort of the commonwealth to place blame for violence in Pittsburgh's 143-day jurisdictional beer war.

The three, members of the AFL-Teamsters Union, were acquitted by a criminal court jury yesterday of charges of illegal possession of fire bombs.

The acquitted men were Richard Campbell, Clifford Smith and Harry Murphy, all of Pittsburgh.

They were arrested last December 19 in Etina when several crude, gasoline-filled fire bombs were found in the car in which they were riding. At their trial they said the car had been borrowed, and that they did not know the fire bombs were in the trunk.

Their arrests came within a few days after several beer distributing establishments had been damaged by fire bombs.

The beer war is the outgrowth of efforts of the Teamsters Union to regain control of brewery employees, who now are affiliated with the CIO-United Brewery Workers.

Plan For Hearing On March 11 On Housing Funds

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Legislation authorizing insurance companies to invest in housing today was scheduled a public hearing March 11 to air opposition voiced by realtors.

The Pennsylvania real estate and building owners and managers associations have objected to two enabling measures, according to Sen. George N. Wade (R) Cumberland, author of the bills and chairman of the committee slated to hold the hearing.

Realtors have contended the chief holdup to construction was material and labor shortages and that when the obstacles were overcome, present building interests could meet housing needs. They doubted insurance firms would invest in low rental dwellings and alleged their intrusion in the field would result in a "monopoly" and possible socialized housing.

Pennsylvania's chief veterans organizations supported the bills.

Charge Russians Misuse Property

Argument Develops Over Rent To Old J. P. Morgan Estate At Glen Cove, L. I.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Soviet Russia and the J. P. Morgan interests were having "piff" today over the rent to the old J. P. Morgan estate at Glen Cove, L. I.

Attorneys for the Morgan Island Estates, Inc. said the Soviets owed their February rent and $25,000 for damages to the property.

The Soviet purchasing committee attorneys suggested cancellation of the lease.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall was drawn into the con-trovercy when Jacob J. Klammer, attorney for the Morgan interests, asked him to intervene on the basis that the Soviets might claim diplomatic immunity. The Russians said they had no intention of claiming immunity.

Isadore G. Needleman, attorney for the Soviets said the Russians had been irritated by constant stories that they were misusing the property. One story, verified with photographs, said nude bathing parties were staged on the private Morgan beach. Others said the place was littered with debris from picnics.

The Russians leased the Morgan estate as a recreation center for their employes in this country. Since then they have purchased the nearby Pratt estate to house important Soviet personnel.

Miss Parks Talks To Kiwanis Club

Supervisor Of Special Education In Rural Schools
Tells Of Her Work

Miss Hannah Parks, supervisor of special education in the county schools of Lawrence and Beaver counties, gave an interesting account of her work among the handicapped children in the rural schools of the two counties when she addressed members of the Kiwanis club at their meeting in The Castle-ton Wednesday noon.

Wednesday was father and sons day with the club, each member having been requested to bring along a son or father, or having neither, an adopted one, in connection with the national observance of Father and Sons week.

Miss Parks told of the various methods she is forced to use sometimes to give these handicapped children all the benefits they can possibly get from the school system.

Miss Parks, who is a graduate of Beaver college and Ohio Wesleyan university, and did graduate work at Penn State and the University of Pittsburgh, is one of the few teachers in the state certified to do the type of work she is doing. She taught at Slippery Rock State Teachers college and the University of Pittsburgh before taking up her work in the county schools.

In addition to the work she does during the school year, she holds pre-school clinics during the summer and tests the pupils who are going to enter school in the fall.

She divides her time between the two counties, going to those places where the need is greatest.

Dr. Robert G. Wells, evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings here, spoke to the club from the book "Man cannot stand alone". He was accompanied by the Smitty Girls quintet, who favored with several selections, accompanied by Mrs. V. E. Smith at the piano.

German Physicist Says 'Bomb' Still American Secret

Otto Warburg Derides Scientists
Who Claim How Atomic Bomb
Is Constructed

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—(INS).—Prof. Otto Heinrich Warburg, Nobel prize winner and director of the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute in Berlin, declared today that production of the atom-bomb "remains an American secret".

In an exclusive interview, the famed German physicist derided fellow-scientists who suddenly announce they know "exactly how it is done" and claim everyone can produce the bomb with proper technical apparatus.

Warburg told International News Service:

"In physics, every scientific discovery is based on technical achievement."

"The technical process in the bomb-making still is full of devices which only the Americans have."

He also declared it is improbable—if not impossible—that the defeated German would be able to surprise the world with a sudden germ war at the present stage of research.

Referring to the arrest by British and American occupation authorities of Nazi plotters who intended to employ an alleged German secret weapon under direction of the former Wehrmacht bacteriologist—Col. Hans George Eisenman—the professor said:

"I feel the people who threaten germ warfare are just bluffing."

"Even if planes dropped bags full of infected rats over a city, the results would be negligible."

Westminster Trounces Thiel Quintet 81 To 56 On Home Court

Dembinski Stars With 29 Points As Titans Win

"Chuckling Chet" Dembinski Runs Total To 314 As Top Scorer In Tri-State

WILL PLAY TECH AT HOME SATURDAY

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 27.—"Chuckling Chet" Dembinski, New Kensington, Pa., sophomore, and Westminster's terrific pivot man climbed into the Tri-State scoring leadership seat last night with 314 points by racking up 29 markers as the Titans smothered Thiel college 81 to 56 under an avalanche of points.

It was the 19th win of the year for the Grover Washbaugh coached machine against three reverses. Westminster suffered a letdown after the Pitt defeat and the varsity boys did not play too much last night, giving way to the great reserve team. Thiel started out fast and led for a little while. Then the Titans got going and led 16 to 9 the first period and 36 to 29 at halftime.

The Titans merely toyed with the Thiel in the third period—dumping in 22 points and allowing the invaders but nine—for a 58 to 38 lead going into the final session. Westminster added 23 more points the final period to 81 for the Thiel and it finished 81 to 56.

At one time in the game Coach Grover Washbaugh had his expected 1948-49 team on the floor—Wagner and Shaffer at the forwards, McCullough at center and Fuhrer and Paul or Dunmire at the guards. Freddy Paine is the only Westminster senior this year, leaving Heddleston, McElhinney, Jones and Dembinski back from the starting five, along with big blond "Big" Nelson, who started at forward last night in place of the ailing Billy McElhinney.

Play Tech Saturday
Don Heddleston with 11 points was the only Titan outside of the sensational Dembinski to reach the double figures mark. The Benedict from East Liverpool, playing his customary great floor game and dumping in 11 points. Bright led the Thiel team in tallying with 16, followed by Duffy and Duff with 13 apiece.

Westminster will play their final home game Saturday night with Carnegie Tech and the overtime that awaits the great Freddy Paine, the pride of Holidays Cove, W. Va., will make the rafter in the old college gym ring. "Big Freddy" will play his final home game Saturday. He has been a great asset to Coach Washbaugh for the past four years in school.

Westminster has two games away yet—Genesea at Beaver Falls and W. & J. at Washington both tough engagements. The Westminster Reserves last night defeated the strong Sig Ep "B" team in the preliminary 44 to 41 in two extra-periods, a real tough and exciting battle.

Titans Will Play New Castle All-Stars At Arena Tuesday March 11

Another Optimist club venture into the sports realm will take place Tuesday evening, March 11, at the Arena, with the Westminster Titans vasily booked for a battle with the New Castle All-Stars coached by Bill Douglas.

Gus Slovinsky, chairman of the big benefit game made the announcement today. The proceeds of the game will go to the Optimist Club Boys Work committee to further their activities.

Attractive Game
Coach Douglas will use some high school players, and he will have the pick of the New Castle independent talent as well. A good game is in prospect with the Titans drawing the interest with their great record of 19 wins and three defeats this year in collegiate circles.

Douglas will announce his roster for the All-Star game in a few days after careful consideration of the splendid array of local floor stars. Arrangements with the Westminster team were made last night at New Wilmington prior to the Titan-Thiel game.

Tickets are being printed and will be out in a few days.

Polish Falcons To Battle Bessemer

Tonight at the Falcon hall the Polish Falcons will battle the Bessemer Legion team in a preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock. The Falcons are looking ahead to next Sunday when they will return to the Arena to play the Ecclesian club in the second game of a series. The Falcons defeated the Ecclesian last Sunday by a healthy count, 52-35. The Arena doors will open Sunday at 2 o'clock.

KNOWING the correct position of every part of the body during a swing in golf is supposed to help the golfer. Actually, it often handicaps him. The fellows who develop aching muscles without improving their game almost always are those who regard golf as a complicated series of body movements. They say to themselves, "Now my head should be here, my left leg here, and my right arm so." In their eagerness to remember all they have read about form, they often forget the simple object of the game: to hit the ball. If a swing is right it will at once put the various portions of the golfer's anatomy in the correct relation to each other. The fellow who can master a full swing, letting the club head lead through a circle, is in a much better position to master the swing by complicated maneuvering, he will defeat his own purpose.

Physical soundness is supposed to be a prerequisite to athletic greatness, and the public regards a maimed athlete as one laboring under a handicap. Actually, however, a serious injury may be the foundation of a sports star's fame. No one has proved this point more ably than Mordecai (Three-Fingered) Brown, pitching star of the Chicago Cubs. A corn-shredder sliced away half of the index finger on Brown's right hand. Not daunted, Brown perfected a delivery using the stump of his index finger, his thumb, and the second and third fingers. It was a peculiar delivery. By using the finger stump he put extra spin on the ball. Brown's "handicap" proved a great help.

Report from New York intimates that Billy Conn "will be ready to return to the ring soon." The report followed a conference between the Pittsburgh Kid and Sol Strauss, who is managing the affairs of the 20th Century club, during Mike Jacobs illness. . . . Leo Houck, former middleweight, and boxing tutor at Penn State, has directed teams which won seven eastern titles in 23 years of competition. . . . Tony Zale, middleweight champion, and Tommy Charles of Indianapolis, will box at Memphis, March 20. . . . Shenango Valley Beagle club will meet March 1. When Russell Baxter climbs through the ropes against Larry Huff of Pittsburgh, March 12, it will be Baxter's first bout here since he turned professional. He already has commenced training. Efforts are being made to have Frankie Moran, fight in the semi-final bout. While in the east, Moran scored several wins. . . . Clark Shaughnessy will conduct a football clinic at Atlantic City, April 1-3, inclusive. . . . Spring Trial Derby will be held by the Shenango Valley Beagle club, March 23, with a drawing at 8:30 a. m. for both classes.

Legion Champs Defeat Mars In Opening Round

Zubkowski And Cary Star As Gaston Post Team Wins First Elimination Game

MARS TO PLAY HERE TONIGHT
Perry S. Gaston Post's veteran floor team had little trouble in winning the opening game of the state elimination series last night at Mars when they defeated the champions of Butler county by a score of 65-37 on the Mars high school floor.

The locals started slowly and at the end of the first quarter were trailing by a score of 13-11, but they really turned on the heat in the second quarter, holding the Mars team to three points, while they were annexing 13 to give them a 24-16 lead, which they gradually increased during the second half, as the Mars defense collapsed when Coddington, star guard, and Iman, high scoring forward for the Mars team, went out on personal fouls.

Second Game Tonight
The second game in the series will be played here tonight on the George Washington junior high floor, starting at 9 o'clock, and if a third game is necessary, will either be played at Mars or here, this to be decided later.

Zubkowski and Cary starred from the floor, Cary getting seven from the field plus one foul for 15 points, while Zubkowski had six field goals and five fouls to top the scoring of the locals. The entire team played a fine game on the floor and were really clicking last night.

Tonight's game is expected to draw a fine crowd of rooters, anxious to see the locals advance in the eliminations. The winner plays the Beaver county champs in an elimination round next week to see who will go further in the state championships.

'Quips Wallop Bridgers, Tie With Sharon Hi

Score Is 66-38 As Lippe Passers Run Roughshod Over Rivals To Deadlock Section

ALIQUIPPA, Feb. 27.—Aliquippa's Indians pulled out a stop-gang here last night, crushing their rivals, Ambridge, 66-38, to pull even with the Sharon Tigers and force a play-off for the Section III laurels.

Each team now boasts a 10 and 2 record and will tangle March 3 at the Farrell high floor for the championship.

The Indians had a bright star in Joe Cervola, their diminutive forward, who led both teams in the scoring column with 20 points. His running mate, Lloyd Cable, chipped in with 19 to double-team the "Bridgers" into helplessness.

Have Easy Time
The "Quips got hot early in the game, running their score to 19-9 in the initial frame and leading at the half by a 37-19 margin. In the second part of the game the Lippe juggernaut poured in 29 markers to 19 for the Drake men.

Ray Stepanick and Mike Knopick put up a spirited but vain battle for the losers, each hitting for seven points in the rout.

Purdue Must Decide Replaying Of Game In Which Two Died

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The fate of the Wisconsin-Purdue basketball game, called off at halftime Monday night by the tragic collapse of the bleachers at Lafayette, Ind., rested with Purdue authorities.

Western conference commissioner K. L. "Tug" Wilson said he expects Purdue to make its decision by Friday.

The Boiler-makers led Wisconsin, 34 to 33, when the bleachers collapsed, killing two spectators. Nearly 200 others received hospital treatment for injuries.

Prior to the contest, Wisconsin was leading the big nine by one game.

Thus Purdue's decision as to whether or not the game will be replayed has a direct bearing on final conference championship standings.

He hopes to continue playing baseball and football—football "if it doesn't interfere with my studies" and baseball if it doesn't interfere with spring football practice.

He is due to graduate in June of 1948. His post-graduation plans, Moravec said, depend on his hometown girl friend, Anne Howe, a graduate student at Simmons.

Moravec is majoring in physics and has only one C in two terms.

Burry Calls Out Titan Track Men

Westminster Resuming Track After War Lapse, Will Work Indoors For Time

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 27.—Despite a snow-blanketed campus, Coach Harold Burry has issued the first call for candidates for the track team at Westminster College for next Monday.

Equipment will be handed out at the first meeting and a schedule of indoor workouts arranged until the weather improves.

This will be the first time that Westminster has been represented in track since before the war.

Norman Monack of Charlestown, has been named student manager.

Second Registers Nineteenth Win In Church League

Defeat First Congregational 63-27, Third U.P. And Trinity Also Win

Second U.P. basketball team put the skids under the First Congregational last night in the New Castle Church league for their 19th straight loop win without a defeat, amassing a total of 63 to 27. The champions led at the half, 34 to 8.

Coach Dick Davis used his reserves the biggest part of the game, the youngsters responding nicely. Second has two more loop games to play and if they win, it will be a perfect season for the star-studded quintet. McGary with 16 was high man last night, followed by Baxter with 12, and Bob Pitzer with 10.

Good Card Friday
In other league games last night the Third U. P. boys handed Croton a 65 to 49 defeat, and Trinity routed the Central Christians, 41 to 37.

The Friday card in the league will be an attractive one, it was announced by Jimmy Dart: First game, Wampum vs. Epworth; second game, St. George Greeks New Castle vs. Youngstown St. George Greeks; third game, First Baptists vs. First U. P.

Black Leads Local Quintet In Scoring During Past Season

Junior Forward Cages 263 Points In 22 Contests For Average Of 11 Per Tilt; Rea Second With 183 Markers; Watters Places Third, Don Spears Fourth.

Season totals for the New Castle High cage squad reveal that Don Black, junior sharpshooter, led his squad in points scored during the 22-game campaign with an aggregate of 263, or 11 markers per game average.

Billy Douglass' wily forward parted the cords for 119 points in 10 exhibition tilts and garnered 144 during his action in Section III foes.

Don Black, first-string pivot man, placed second in the totals with 183—91 in non-loop games and 92 against circuit adversaries. Other members of the squad to enter the "100" circle during the season were Don Watters with 126 and Don Spears with 124.

Douglass' warriors did well at the charity line, also, converting 204 out of 365 tosses for an average of .558 for the campaign.

The Red and Black floor men finished the season with 12 wins and 10 losses, far from a disappointing season in the new coach's inaugural year. Brighter prospects loom for next campaign when Douglass' system, planted firmly, will begin to bear fruit.

Competing against four Section III quintets boasting senior veteran armys the locals won four and lost eight—two of the setbacks being by one point and one by a field goal margin.

Following is the list of scorers for the season and their totals:

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—That noise you heard the other day was money falling in a shower into a cash register of the New York Yankees.

The golden cascade was on down in San Juan, where the Yanks opened their spring exhibition schedule. Their take for five games in Puerto Rico will be $45,000 or a good start toward an estimated all-time high for any club during the training period.

Some sideline observers place the figure on probable Yankee receipts this spring at close to $200,000.

Heavy Guarantees
Most of their games will have big guarantees attached, or will be assured gate attractions. On a split of the gate, the contesting clubs usually get fifty-fifty, and no expenses involved for use of the premises.

This Yankee income will just go on and on through the spring until finally the season opens, when, of course, it will get even bigger—barring their coming up with a terrible ball club. This arrangement for the spring worked out by President Larry MacPhail is something like owning a mint. All you have to do is show up to get another armload of money.

Players Grumbling
There is another side of the picture, however, which may be fairly important in the long run. According to reports coming back from Latin-America some of the Yankees have begun to grumble over the long training period in the hot weather and the early start on the exhibition campaign.

Some of these players reportedly insist that the long training routine of last season left them limp by July, and they anticipated similar results this season.

They also were tossed into their first exhibition game one week after landing in the island. Apparently the time when ball players are given almost unlimited time to get into shape is gone—insofar as the Yanks are concerned.

Through all this Joe DiMaggio is sitting on the sidelines with his bad heel. An operation for removal of a spur has been necessary to tinker with it, and so far, he hasn't put on a uniform even for photographers. In fact, he has shown an amazing lack of interest in the activities of his team-mates.

He has left the hotel only two or three times, for the walk across the street to the ball park. Some of the writing fellows are making a point of this. Can he be disgruntled, too?

Gordon Is Gone
Joe Gordon is a pet about some things and was sent to Cleveland in the trade during the last World Series. This isn't a hint that DiMaggio is supposed to be on the block again. It is merely speculation, based on baseball talk and gossip.

By now there is some doubt that DiMaggio will be ready to open the season. However, it has been pointed out that the so-called Yankee clipper may be better for his enforced idleness. When he does get into the game, he may be in better shape than those who have toiled and sweated all this time under the tropical sun while he sat in the hotel shade.

The Yankees remain interesting, if nothing else, and it will be extremely interesting to see where they finish next season.

WESTMINSTER WINS
Westminster won its second swimming meet yesterday at New Westminster by beating Carnegie Tech 43-32.

Northwestern Picks Voigts As Coach Of Football For 1947

Board Of Trustees Approves Naming Of Former Northwestern Star As Grid Coach

EVANSTON, Ill., Feb. 27.—(INS)—Bob Voigts, a three-sports athlete in his playing days at Northwestern University, today held the head football coaching post at his alma mater.

The Northwestern board of trustees approved the appointment of the 31-year-old Voigts Tuesday night upon the recommendation of President Franklin Bliss Snyder and the faculty committee on athletics. The former Wildcat athlete served last season as line coach of the Cleveland Browns of the All-American pro conference.

Voigts returns to Northwestern under a three-year contract, and succeeds Lynn Waldorf, who resigned to become head coach at the University of California.

Voigts has been released from a five-year contract he held with the Browns, to accept the university job.

Voigts was graduated from Northwestern in 1939 after winning All-American honors as a tackle and starring in baseball and basketball.

New Jersey Solon Would Insure All Sporting Events

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 27.—(INS)—Assemblyman T. James Tumulty, Hudson, Democrat, Tuesday introduced a bill in the legislature designed to provide insurance protection for high school and college students participating in sports events.

Under the terms of the bill, the state commissioner of banking and insurance would be authorized to issue a permit to organize and a license to do business to a corporation under the supervision of the state commissioner of education and the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association for the sole purpose of providing medical and dental expense indemnity to athletes of high schools and colleges.

The proposed law provides that payments would be made to students injured in games or in practicing for such events or in other accidents which the commissioner of banking and insurance judges should be included.

STATE SKI TITLES AT LAUREL MOUNTAIN

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The annual state ski championships today were scheduled to be staged at Laurel Mountain near Ligonier Saturday and Sunday.

The Pennsylvania Ski federation reported 22 inch snow mantels provided ideal conditions for the contests which earlier had been postponed twice due to lack of snow. Nearly 100 contestants had registered for the events, including down hill races, slalom and cross country events, according to the federation.

Red Embree Ends Holdout Campaign, Signs For 1947

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 27.—(INS)—Pitcher Red Embree joined the Cleveland Indians in spring conditioning Wednesday at Tucson after ending his lone holdout campaign.

The right-handed mound-act agreed to terms via telephone with President Bill Veeck and was permitted to participate in preliminary workouts.

Only relief hurler Joe Berry and second-string catcher Tom Jordan, neither of whom figures importantly in the Tribal picture, have failed to come to terms.

TAKE AQUATIC MEET

West Virginia previously had accepted an invitation to compete and six other colleges will be invited.

Villanova Starts Baseball Training

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 27.—(INS)—The Villanova Wildcats began sharpening their claws today for their 78th consecutive baseball season when Coach Phil Weiner.

Weiner, himself a former major league hurler, will be starting his second season as the main line coach. He plans holding preliminary conditioning work for pitchers and catchers before issuing a call for other candidates.

New Philly Shortstop

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 27.—(INS)—The Phillies' camp was abuzz today over the workouts of "Puddin' Head" Jones who is being ushered into the majors this year as Blue Jay shortstop.

Manager Ben Chapman was impressed with the six-footer's performance, and believes he's the answer to his infield worries.

Two of the Phillies stars didn't report for opening workouts. North outfielder Del Ennis and hurler Schoolboy Rowe were nursing fevers.

PRICES STEADY

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Stocks got back on an even keel today after suffering sharp setbacks in the two preceding sessions. Prices were steady and trading slow.

Pivotal groups like steels and motors moved ahead by fractions. Rails met mild demand. Rubbers proved the best group before noon with gains running to a point in Goodrich. Oils were firm with Panhandle up a fraction.

Coppers, amusements, utilities, and merchandising stocks were unchanged to slightly higher. Chemicals were quiet.

Bonds and curb stocks backed and filled.

Tells Of Success Of Commission

American Delegate To United Nations Women's Commission Gives Views

HAVE GREAT HOPES OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

By JUDGE DOROTHY KENYON
American Delegate, United Nations
Women's Commission
(Written Expressly for L.N.S.)

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 27.—I would like to tell the women of my own country of the concrete accomplishments made at the recent session by the 14 members of the commission.

Of course we have great hopes of what we will be able to do. We shall not consider the job entrusted to us by the women of the world completed until we have given every woman in every country her just political, civil, economic and educational rights.

But we realize that such a goal is a long way off. It is one thing to champion those rights, to pass resolutions demanding them, but quite another to see them enforced in countries that have never acknowledged that women are entitled to equality with men.

Those of us who have devoted our lives to the international women's movement understand better perhaps than the average American woman—who enjoys the greatest political and economic freedom in the world—what the new women's commission is up against.

Century Old Barricade

In the Asiatic and middle eastern countries, for example, there is a centuries old barricade of discriminatory law, entrenched custom and tradition.

Many of these women still are illiterate. We must do an educational job at the same time that we talk of world wide enfranchisement.

With these factors in mind, the commission must proceed slowly, methodically and surely.

We have agreed at this first session of the full commission to give first priority to women's political rights. We shall do our utmost to put teeth in the recent assembly resolution, passed unanimously by the 55 United Nations, endorsing global enfranchisement for women.

By next fall we will have completed and will publish a comprehensive report on the political rights of women in every country. We will know what countries are giving women at least a modicum of political freedom.

By the same token we will know those countries that are farthest behind. We will know, in other words, what countries we have to go to work on.

Drive In Education

We also have resolved to make a concerted drive in the field of education. Simply pressuring governments to give women the vote is not enough. We must help women's organizations in each nation educate their own nationals for the responsibilities of citizenship.

As the American delegate, I recommended that the women's section of the United Nations secretariat act as a clearing house for information on the education and citizenship requirements of newly enfranchised women.

My colleagues agreed that this must be done. It means, in a sense, that the work and knowledge of women who have wrested these rights in their own countries will be pooled, will become weapons in the hands of less free women.

I personally think that the most important step we have taken at this two-week session, just concluded, is to arrange regional conferences among women leaders throughout the world.

It is improbable that our first regional conference may be held in Syria in the heart of the Moslem country where women have fought so long for the most fundamental rights.

In short, the United Nations women's commission will take all the action it can get away with, within the confines of our terms of reference and budgetary allowances.

We want most to begin with those women who are at the bottom of the heap, to use good old American slang.

Awards Are Made To Physicians For Research Work

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—(INS)—Three awards of $1,000 each were made Wednesday to physicians attending the American Academy of Pediatrics meeting in Pittsburgh for work in research over the past year.

The Borden award for research on nutrition, which included a gold medal in addition to $1,000 cash, went to Dr. James L. Gamble of Brookline, Mass., professor of Pediatrics and chairman of the department of Pediatrics at Harvard University.

One Mead Johnson award of $1,000 was given Dr. Horace L. Hodges of Baltimore for his research on transmission of Japanese B. Encephalitis by mosquitoes on the island of Okinawa during the war.

The other Mead Johnson award went to Dr. Paul Harper of Bridgeport, Conn., for research on mosquito-borne malaria which affected more than 100,000 men of the U. S. armed forces in the South Pacific during the war.

Student Wives Select Officers

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 27.—Miss Ruth LaCamera has been elected president of the student wives organization at Westminster college.

Other officers are Mrs. Dawn Minick, vice president; Mrs. Patricia Wheeler, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Millie Falkner and Mrs. Eleanor Heddleston, social co-chairmen.

Mrs. W. J. Harper McKnight and Mrs. Ross Ellis will serve as advisors to the group which will meet the second Thursday of each month at Browne hall.

The gypsy moth was accidentally introduced into Medford, Mass., in 1869, and became such a pest that the legislature of the state began an effort to exterminate it. The work was systematically carried on for about 10 years, but was permitted to lapse in 1900 and the moth became a menace to property owners.

The average American today uses as much petroleum in four minutes as he did in a year in 1859.
